Promotion of Library Services Based on Statistics, Analyses and Evaluation Trine Kolderup Flaten, 2008-11-03 Rapid developments in information technology and media have resulted in increasingly diverse strategies for information retrieval by readers and users. The duty to cope with this phenomenon and to master the situation forms one of the biggest challenges facing libraries. In order to strengthen the awareness of the potential of tools for management and strategic planning a two day meeting was held under the auspices of IFLA's Management Marketing Section in Bergen Norway in August 2005. Managers of different types of libraries, researchers and educators from five continents shared their experiences with research methods, data collection, evaluation, performance measurement, best practice strategies and policies. This book contains their presentations in the form of full length articles.

City in the Forest Birt Darling, 1950      The Victorian Reports Victoria. Supreme Court, 1876      Victorian Houses and their Details Helen Long, 2007-06-01

Victorian Houses presents the architectural detailing of the time in the context of the era, providing a comprehensive understanding of its architecture and design. Pattern books played a vital role in the dissemination of taste between architect, builder and client in the nineteenth and early twentieth century. By focusing on the contribution of the pattern book to the architecture of the Victorian and Edwardian eras, the various trends of the time are documented. The types of publications and other sources of taste available at different points over this period reflected social and economic factors such as the changing demand or changes in organisation of manufacturing and retail.
