Building Jerusalem:

Building Jerusalem Tristram Hunt, 2004      Building Jerusalem Tristram Hunt, 2004      David's Politics Paul R. Abramson, 2016-11-21 David's Politics evaluates what we can learn about politics by studying David's life as presented in the Books of Samuel through the first two chapters of 1 Kings I begin by discussing the rules for kingship set forth in Deuteronomy and carry this through to the elders demand that the prophet Samuel appoint a king Despite his reluctance he appoints Saul who has many military successes But when he fails when he fails to annihilate the Amalekites God withdraws his grace and Saul falls into a state of depression which grows worse as the story progresses David is called to Saul's court as a musician I argue that he has three roles first as a servant to King Saul second as a rebel against Saul and third as king As a servant to Saul David establishes his credentials as a warrior and also becomes the king's son in law As a rebel against Saul David again takes actions that solidify his future support in Israel and Judah David has two opportunities to kill Saul but refuses to kill him He also cements his political support in Judah After becoming king David's military successes are the prime reason for his support He also administered justice which may have further bolstered his legitimacy Indeed David did what was right all the days of his life except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite 1 Kings 15 5 By committing adultery with Bathsheba Uriah's wife and by having Uriah murdered David brings grief upon himself and his family the rape of his only named daughter the murder of Amnon his first born son and the death in battle of Absalom who is probably David's oldest surviving son Throughout most of this account David displays remarkable political sagacity and more can be learned studying his life than that of any other king of Israel or Judah      The Works of Flavius Josephus, the Learned and Authentic Jewish Historian and Celebrated Warrior Flavius Josephus, 1839      Sealed Book of Daniel Opened William Carr Thurman, 1867

The Invention of a Tradition Immanuel Etkes, 2023-10-31 The Gaon of Vilna was the foremost intellectual leader of non Hasidic Jewry in eighteenth century Europe his legacy is claimed by religious Jews both Zionist and not In the mid twentieth century Shlomo Zalman Rivlin wrote several books advancing the myth that the Gaon was an early progenitor of Zionism Following the 1967 War in Israel messianic sentiments spread in some circles of the national religious public in Israel who embraced this myth and made it a central component of the historical narrative they advanced For those who identified with the religious Zionist enterprise the myth of the Gaon and his disciples as the first Zionists was seen as proof of the righteousness of their path In this book Israeli scholar Immanuel Etkes explores how what he calls the Rivlinian myth took hold and demonstrates that it has no basis in historical reality Etkes argues that proponents of the Rivlinian myth seek to blur the distinction between Zionism as a modern national movement and traditional messianic phenomenon a distinction that underlies many of the central conflicts of contemporary Israeli politics As historian David Biale suggests in his brief foreword to this English translation what is at stake here is not only historical truth but also the very identity of Zionism as a nationalist movement      Law and the Image Costas Douzinas, Lynda Nead, 1999-08 Discussing the diverse relationships between law and the artistic image this book includes coverage of the history of the relationship between art and law and the ways in which the visual is made subject to the force of the law

Social Memory among the Literati of Yehud Ehud Ben Zvi, 2019-07-22 Ehud Ben Zvi has been at the forefront of exploring how the study of social memory contributes to our understanding of the intellectual world of the literati of the early Second Temple period and their textual repertoire Many of his studies on the matter and several new relevant works are here collected together providing a very useful resource for furthering research and teaching in this area The essays included here address inter alia prophets as sites of memory kings as sites memory Jerusalem as a site of memory a mnemonic system shaped by two interacting national histories matters of identity and othering as framed and explored via memories mnemonic metanarratives making sense of the past and serving various didactic purposes and their problems memories of past and futures events shared by the literati issues of gender constructions and memory memories understood by the group as counterfactual and their importance and in multiple ways how and why shared memories served as a safe playground for exploring multiple central ideological issues within the group and of generative grammars governing systemic preferences and dis preferences for particular memories
