Seattle's Historic Prostitution Trade Marques Vickers, 2017-11-14 The Architecture of Seattle's Historic Prostitution Trade is a photographic examination of 48 documented and probable buildings employed in Seattle's historical sex commerce. The edition illuminates the historical background, building detailing, and known anecdotes behind each structure. The principal Seattle red light neighborhoods include the Pioneer Square and the Ballard districts. The infamous LaSalle Hotel in Pike Place Market and the former Lester Apartment complex located on Beacon Hill round out the compilation. The 500-unit Lester building was once considered the largest operating brothel in the world. Seattle's wide open frontier environment in the late 19th century stimulated a proliferation of vice-related services including gambling houses, saloons, and houses of prostitution. Statutes were loosely enforced, law enforcement corruption rampant, and the tax revenues levied against brothels and sex workers essential to maintaining a financially destitute municipality. Many historians have noted that the prostitution industry saved the expanding settlement and literally paved the sidewalks of the commercial district. The timber industry, Klondike Gold Rush (1896-1899), and the city's seaport location swelled the region's influx of males seeking entertainment, social diversions, and female companionship. The book profiles some of the most colorful and influential personalities, including theatre impresario John Considine and notable Madams Mary Ann Boyer (nicknamed Madame Damnable Lou Graham) and Nellie Curtis. The author elaborates on the documented history, owners, architects, tenants, and historical uses of each building. His text cites distinctive architectural details on the composition, facade components, and alterations over the decades following the initial construction. Each building is photographed from multiple angles, offering a multi-faceted glimpse of a historic era.
