Abelardo Morell and the Camera Eye Diana Gaston,1998 Abelardo Morell and the Camera Eye ,1999

Abelardo Morell and the camera eye Abelardo Morell,1998 Abelardo Morell Brett Abbott,Paul Martineau,2013 A riveting retrospective of the imaginative photographs created by contemporary artist Abelardo Morell Over the past twenty five years Abelardo Morell b 1948 has earned international praise for his images that use the language of photography to explore visual surprise and wonder Born in Havana Cuba Morell came to the United States as a teenager in 1962 and later studied photography earning an MFA from Yale University He gained attention for intimate black and white pictures of domestic objects from a child s point of view inspired by the birth of his son in 1986 as well as images in which he turns a room into a giant camera obscura projecting exterior views onto interior spaces and photographs of books that revel in their sensory materiality In more recent years he has turned to color exploring the camera obscura with a painterly delight and innovating a tent camera that projects outdoor scenes onto a textured ground Across his career Morell has approached photography with remarkable wit and creativity examining everyday objects with childlike curiosity The first in depth treatment in fifteen years this handsome and important book examines Morell s career to the present day including his earlier works in black and white and never before published color photographs from the past decade An essay by Elizabeth Siegel along with a recent interview with the artist and an illustrated chronology of his life and works offers a riveting portrait of this contemporary photographer and his ongoing artistic endeavors Distributed for the Art Institute of Chicago Exhibition Schedule The Art Institute of Chicago 06 01 13 09 02 13 The J Paul Getty Museum 10 01 13 01 05 14 High Museum of Art 02 22 14 05 18 14 Latinx Photography in the United States Elizabeth Ferrer,2021-01-14 Shortlisted for the 2022 ASAP Book Prize sponsored by the Association for the Study of Arts of the Present Showcases the exceptionally diverse photographic work of Latinx artists Whether at UFW picket lines in California s Central Valley or capturing summertime street life in East Harlem Latinx photographers have documented fights for dignity and justice as well as the daily lives of ordinary people Their powerful innovative photographic art touches on family identity protest borders and other themes including the experiences of immigration and marginalization common to many of their communities Yet the work of these artists has largely been excluded from the documented history of photography in the United States Through individual profiles of more than eighty photographers from the early history of the photographic medium to the present Elizabeth Ferrer introduces readers to Latinx portraitists photojournalists and documentarians and their legacies She traces the rise of a Latinx consciousness in photography in the 1960s and 70s and the growth of identity based approaches in the 1980s and 90s Ferrer argues that in many cases a shared sense of struggle has motivated photographers to work purposefully driven by a deep sense of resistance social and political commitments and cultural affirmation and she highlights the significance of family photos to their approaches and outlooks Works range from documentary and street photography to narrative series to conceptual projects Latinx Photography in the United States is the first book to offer a parallel history of photography one that no longer lies at the margins but rather plays a crucial role in imagining and creating a broader more inclusive American visual history

Drives Like a Dream Porter Shreve, 2006-08 The New York Times called Porter Shreve's first novel The Obituary Writer an involving and sneakily touching story whose twists feel less like the conventions of a genre than the convolutions of a heart any heart Newsday hailed the book as a substantial achievement and Tim O'Brien described it as taut compelling and moving beautifully written engrossing from start to finish Shining with the same heart and humor Shreve's second novel Drives Like a Dream is a smart wry tale about a modern day mother in the midst of a lifestyle crisis and her outlandish attempts to get her family back Lydia Modine is sixty one and about to come undone Her three grown up children have flown the coop She hasn't seen them together in more than a year and now her ex husband is about to remarry a woman half his age And the insults keep coming Lydia is stuck on a book she's writing about Detroit's car industry which uncannily parallels her own life out with the old model in with the new She's poured her soul into her family only to be abandoned in the City of Dream Machines But then a twist of fate introduces her to Norm an eco car fanatic out to remake her and the world Is he the answer to all of her problems or does he hold the one secret that just might get her children back to Detroit home for good A warm funny and affecting novel that's sure to appeal to anyone who has longed for an alternate life Drives Like a Dream confirms that sometimes when you set out for a spin the twists and turns can be perfectly rewarding and right
