Able Lives:

The Tablet, 1879 Peter Singer Under Fire Jeffrey A. Schaler, 2009 Peter Singer the best known and most controversial ethicist of our day has done more than anyone else to make philosophical ethics relevant to the troubling moral issues that concern ordinary people and policy makers Singer's views on such topics as world hunger abortion infanticide the sanctity of life and our treatment of animals have often aroused fierce opposition from political and religious leaders Singer was subjected to violent attacks during his visits to Germany in 1989 1991 and his appointment to a chair in bioethics at Princeton University led to noisy protests and threats of boycott Peter Singer Under Fire includes Singer's intellectual autobiography in which he relates the events of his life and tells how he arrived at his contentious views followed by fifteen essays from prominent critics of Singer not all philosophers or academics to each one of which Singer gives a careful and clear reply BOOK JACKET

Remapping an Ableist World Vera Chouinard, 2025-02-28 Remapping an Ableist World examines the forces shaping our lives in an able capitalist world It draws on examples including human enhancement and the organ trade to illustrate connections between able capitalist ways of life impairment disability and oppression The book addresses ableness as a regime of power and oppression intrinsic to global capitalism and as such a system that touches all of our lives albeit in different ways Vera Chouinard offers an intersectional analysis of the production of impairment and disability drawing on autoethnographic and autobiographical methodologies case studies of disability in the Global South and North and comparative accounts of processes such as the uneven development of disability law Inviting readers to rethink the causes and consequences of the ableist capitalist order in which we find ourselves Remapping an Ableist World reminds us that for our own well being and that of generations to come we must forge a less destructive and more nurturing way of life

The Art of Life John Kekes, 2002 The art of life according to John Kekes consists in living a life of personal and moral excellence This art requires continuous creative effort drawing on one's character circumstances experiences and ideals
