Herrtage,2017-11-25 Excerpt from Catholicon Anglicum An English Wordbook Dated 1483 J H Hessels who is editing a new and revised edition of Du Cange for Mr John Murray has pointed out a mistake in the reading of the Addit Ms Under Defouille p 94 col 15 viz corpora It stands in the ms Car A which should of course have been printed as correpta A as in other cases throughout the volume In some cases these notes of the compiler will be found to have been omitted when only occurring in the Addit Ms This is due in a great measure to the fact that the Addit Ms Was used mainly for purposes of collation and filling up gaps In some cases too Latin words occurring in the Addit Ms Have been passed over This was done sometimes intentionally on the ground that the difference in spelling was very slight Occasionally however both Mr Brook and myself have no doubt missed some words which occur only in the Addit MS and this is accounted for by the fact that the Latin equivalents in the two mss Are not given in the same order so that when many equivalents were given it was an easy matter to miss one or more in spite of all our care My business lay mainly with the English words the Latin equivalents being of secondary importance though they prove to be of great value to Mr Hessels for his work It is to be hoped that some Mediaeval Latin Text Society or some German Editor will supplement my work by printing the Addit Ms In full About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
