The papers included in this volume address several issues connected with the relationship between what seems to be external and internal in human language usage. By external is meant here communication and more concretely interaction by internal processing and conceptualization that is to say cognition. These two sides coincide with the subject matter of two of the most active paradigms of linguistic research nowadays pragmatics and cognitive linguistics and the two main sections of this volume reflect two possible entry points to this dichotomy. The first section Interacting clearly puts the emphasis on interaction itself whereas the second section The system behind is concerned with metaphor metonymy and categorization processes Linguistics, 2005 Hypotaxis as Building-site Torsten Leuschner, 2006 The Canadian Teacher ... Gideon E.
