Celebration Creation:

Joining Creation's Praise Brian Brock, 2025-08-19 In the beginning God created Thus begins the Bible's story of a long conversation between God and creatures one in which humans are often the least edifying contributors They need to learn what it means to confess themselves creatures if they are to begin to understand what it means to be human and how to live Joining Creation's Praise a major statement by a leading Christian ethicist shows how confessing that we are creatures deeply reshapes every aspect of Christian thinking and living Human beings are made to embody Christ's image in the world not as dominators but as conduits of divine life In this comprehensive yet clear volume of theological ethics Brian Brock follows the first few chapters of Genesis in order to discover the things that the sages of Israel took to be crucial for the ethical life of human beings among other creatures in God's world Informed by theological rigor and careful exegesis the many ethical reflections in this volume allow an ancient wisdom to shed fresh light on very postmodern ethical questions about conversion life with God knowledge and wisdom dominion Sabbath vocation economics human dignity our relationship with the rest of creation sexuality marriage family sin death and politics

Wonderstruck Margaret Feinberg, 2012-12-01 Let's be honest it's far too easy to go through day to day life without a sense of the mystery the marvel or the awe of God's presence Have you ever felt your relationship with God isn't as vibrant as you want it to be Have you ever felt like God seemed far away even in the midst of devotions prayer and church We Were Created for Wonder You were created and designed to experience wonder Woven into the fabric of our humanity is an innate ability and desire for the wonder of God It's felt in the moments when you watch the sun melt behind the horizon when you reach out to cradle a baby and smell the sweet scent of new life when you can't help but smile as you witness two wrinkled souls renew their vows to each other Such moments remind us we were made for something more than deadlines and debt carpools and coffee breaks Yet despite such wondrous moments we can still find ourselves going through the motions of faith Whether you're A long time follower of Jesus or still figuring Him out Unemployed overly employed or an entrepreneur A creator innovator or conformist Grumpy ebullient grey haired or bed head An average Joe or have a gym membership but never go A superhero of any era supermom superdad super grand super great grand or don't feel particularly super at all No matter who you are or where you've been if you've lived a life where you've seen it all done it all or feel like you're past it all God still longs to take your breath away Isaiah 29:4 records God's desire for you Therefore once more I will astound these people with wonder upon wonder Do you see it God is busting at the seams to display His glory power and might in your life And He wants to give you the greatest gift of all Himself Yet why do we pass by the wonder of God unaware

Creations Sven Rune Havsteen, 2007 The meaning of the noun creation and the verb to create range from the traditional theological idea of God creating ex nihilo to a more recent sense of the process of artistic conception This collection of thirteen essays written by scholars of music literature the visual arts and theology explores the complicated relationship between medieval rituals and theology and the development of an idea of human artistic creation which came to the fore in the sixteenth century The volume concentrates on the period from the Carolingians to the Counter Reformation but also includes some twentieth century musicians Each essay is dedicated to a particular topic concerned with ritual or artistic beginnings inventions harmony and disharmony as well as representations or celebrations of creation Central themes include the interplay of the ideas of God as creator of God acting and recreating in medieval liturgy of God as artist the deus artifex of the Pythagorean cosmology which was occasionally referred to as recently as the early nineteenth century and finally of the homo creator a concept in which man reflected and eventually replaced God in his artistic creativity This book therefore features new significant individual contributions from a range of scholarly disciplines but taken as a whole it also constitutes a complex interdisciplinary study with large scale historical constructions

African Christian Theologies and the Impact of the Reformation Heinrich Bedford-Strohm, Tharcisse Gatwa, Traugott Jähnichen, Elisée Musemakweli, 2017 One of the strongest heritages of the Reformation for Christianity was to return to the central role given to the Bible translated in local dialects Christianity expanded thanks to the translation of the Bible in vernacular languages worldwide Most importantly the people who had been victims of prejudices of race supremacy could now have access to God in their own language culture and idioms without intermediaries It is largely thanks to Bible translations that the majority of those churches in Africa born of European mission activities continued to develop positively after the end of the colonial age and that independent African churches emerged Series Theology in the Public Square Theologie in der Öffentlichkeit Vol 10 Subject African Studies Christian Studies *You Are a Star!
