Cathy's Choice Charles Roy MacKinnon, Vivian Donald, 1978      Becoming His Father's Son Ink Noir, Denise Dennis, Gregory P. Miller, 2005-11 Set in Philadelphia and revolving around a suspenseful legal case the novel Becoming His Father's Son tells the story of Alex Hamilton's redemption A successful Ivy League educated African American attorney Alex feels superior to other African Americans In fact he has achieved his success by winning racial discrimination cases using questionable tactics for wealthy corporate clients In stark contrast to Alex his physician father Dr Nate Hamilton has been practicing medicine in the inner city for thirty years often giving free treatment to patients who cannot afford to pay Dr Nate the son of a sharecropper grew up poor in Alabama and worked his way through college and medical school unlike Alex who has lived a life of privilege Alex and Nate haven't spoken to each other in years a situation that grieves Alex's mother May Hamilton When Dr Nate is accused of Medicare fraud and stands to lose everything he has worked for he turns to his son for help Alex makes a critical choice to defend his father a decision based on love and it irrevocably changes his life His law partners scheme to maneuver him out of the firm when they learn of his father's indictment and Alex begins to question all his former assumptions As they work on the defense case Nate reveals to Alex family secrets he had until then kept to himself and father and son achieve a new understanding The story ends with a suspenseful courtroom trial the trial of Alex's life and a surprise twist at the conclusion A collaboration of Gregory P Miller a senior partner in the law firm of Miller Alfano and Raspanti and author Denise Dennis Becoming His Father's Son follows the story from Independence Hall to the North Philadelphia ghetto The novel holds the reader's interest until the last page is turned      Caring for Cathy Gil Hogg, 2008 A man without a past and a woman without a future This is the story of a friendship between a young musician David who has lost his memory in a car accident and an older woman Cathy who is dying from Huntington's disease Both are confined to Denby Hall a pleasant unconventional neurological nursing home near Brighton The home does not allow dogs so David takes it upon himself to help Cathy to see her dog occasionally In Cathy's words she and David are marooned on an island of misunderstanding As David's efforts stir up trouble at the home the nature of Cathy's relationships with those closest to her are revealed in this light hearted look at the horrors of degenerative disease and its effect on those who care      CCCS Selected Working Papers Ann Gray, Jan Campbell, Mark Erickson, Stuart Hanson, Helen Wood, 2007-11-07 This collection of classic essays focuses on the theoretical frameworks that informed the work of the Centre for Contemporary Cultural Studies at the University of Birmingham the methodologies and working practices that the Centre developed for conducting academic research and examples of the studies carried out under the auspices of the Centre This volume is split into seven thematic sections that are introduced by key academics working in the field of cultural studies and includes a preface by eminent scholar Stuart Hall The thematic sections are Literature and Society Popular Culture and Youth Subculture Media Women's Studies and Feminism Race History Education and Work      Class Conflict in Emily Bronte's Wuthering Heights

Dedria Bryfonski, 2011-07-22 Wuthering Heights is unique among novels of its time for its poetic presentation its lack of authorial comment and its unusual narrative structure exerting the energies of hate and love from the confined world of the story The book deeply challenged embedded Victorian conventions regarding gender equality religion and class This compelling volume discusses the author Emily Bronte s background the details of which are still not well understood class conflict in the context of rural and industrial Britain and contemporary perspectives on class conflict Choice Literature, 1912 Co-Learning in Higher Education Edward P. St. John, 2022-11-14 Co Learning in Higher Education addresses topics critical to the future of higher education the wellbeing of communities engagement of scholars supporting new generations of social activists and the renewal and expansion of educational and career pathways It develops a theory of co learning that engages students and professors across generations in partnerships with community organizations schools and corporations that solve emerging social and environmental challenges Collaboratively written cases discuss community projects engaging pedagogies and action research projects These co cases demonstrate the power of using critical pedagogies and social action within troubling contexts rather than assuming public policy changes are the only solution Contributors explore mentoring discuss pedagogies that promote community wellbeing and equity address the urgency of change in universities and reflect on the implications of this chaotic period for empowering social agency among youth in rising generations This is a timely volume for scholars and students in higher education and educational policy Missing Catherine MacPhail, Cathy MacPhail, 2011-11-21 Maxine s parents have had to do perhaps the worst possible thing confirm the identity of her brother Derek s body by the clothes he was wearing when he disappeared So the brother who was missing is now officially dead But then the worst possible thing really happens Maxine receives a telephone call from somebody saying he is her brother She can hardly believe her ears Has Derek come back from the dead In this pacy thriller the author manages to confront many issues including how different people deal with grief the very underrated effect of severe bullying at school and sibling rivalry all in a fast paced compelling narrative voice Cathy's Choice Vivian Donald, 1978 Another Me Cathy MacPhail, 2011-11-21 Fay struggles with her own identity when someone who appears to be her doppelganger starts outperforming her at school and engaging with her friends and she must stop her before the other Fay takes over for good Abortion Counseling Rachel B. Needle, Lenore Walker, EdD, 2008 The majority of women who have had abortions report feeling happy satisfied and relieved following their abortion Some few women who have had an abortion may experience some feelings of guilt and sadness however this rarely lasts longer than a few days Those very few women who present with prolonged feelings of sadness and mental health problems are women who have either had these problems prior to their abortion had other risk factors or were influenced by frightening demonstrations and inaccurate biased information provided prior to the abortion Through this book the authors hope to train general therapists and counselors in pre and post abortion counseling techniques to avoid women experiencing unnecessary psychological problems created by those who insist that the non-existent post-abortion syndrome exists. Abortion counseling has a critical role to play in ensuring women's mental health is the priority and not the goals of a political agenda. Thus Needle and Walker have taken on a complex, profound, and essential task: equipping therapists and abortion counselors with the knowledge and skills needed to help their clients, and they have done it well. Readers of this book should gain an increased understanding of how women's diverse life circumstances affect their ability to cope with the difficult decisions and circumstances surrounding abortion. They will also be better able to build women's resilience and coping skills by having considered them both in the context of women's lives and coping resources: social support, partner violence, incidence of depression, and in the context of socio-political agendas that seek to manipulate women's mental health in order to undermine women's reproductive rights. In the final analysis, it is important to remember that abortion counseling is not about abortion; it is about women confronting the decision to bear a child with all of the profound and life-changing commitments and responsibilities that entails.

The Top Books of the Year Cathys Choice The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Cathys Choice : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Cathys Choice : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
