Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 The World at First Light Bernd Roeck, 2025-06-03 A magisterial history of the Renaissance and the birth of the modern world The cultural epoch we know as the Renaissance emerged at a certain time and in a certain place Why then and not earlier Why there and not elsewhere In The World at First Light historian Bernd Roeck explores the cultural and historical preconditions that enabled the European Renaissance Roeck shows that the rediscovery of ancient knowledge including the science of the medieval Arab world played a critical role in shaping the beginnings of Western modernity He explains that the Renaissance emerged in a part of Europe where competing states and cities formed relatively open societies Most of the era's creative minds from Leonardo da Vinci and Michelangelo to Copernicus and Galileo came from the middle classes The art of arguing flowered the basso continuo to intellectual and cultural breakthroughs Roeck argues that two revolutions shaped the Renaissance a media revolution triggered by Gutenberg's invention of movable type which itself was a driving force behind the scientific revolution and the advent of modern science He also reports on the dark side of the era hatred of Jews witch panic religious wars and the atrocities of colonialism In a series of meditative counterfactuals Roeck considers other cultural rebirths throughout the first millennium from the Islamic empire to the Carolingians examining why the epic developments of the Renaissance took place in the West and not elsewhere The complicated legacy of the Renaissance he shows encompasses the art of critical thinking as learned from the ancients the emergence of the modern state and the genesis of democracy Philology of the Grasslands, 2018-01-16 Professor Gyrgy Kara an outstanding member of academia celebrated his 80th birthday recently His students and colleagues commemorate this occasion with papers on a wide range of topics in Altaic Studies with a focus on the literacy culture and languages of the steppe civilizations The Cyclopædia of India and of Eastern and Southern Asia, Commercial, Industrial, and Scientific Edward Balfour, 1885 John Colet on the Ecclesiastical Hierarchy of Dionysius Daniel J. Niles, Daniel Lochman, 2013-09-26 The commentary of John Colet 1467-1519 on Dionysius the Areopagite's Ecclesiastical Hierarchy adapts a work widely neglected by medieval theologians to the early sixteenth century Dionysius's apostolic model allowed Colet to set ecclesiastical corruption against the ideas for reforming the mind as well as the church The commentary reveals Colet's fascination with the Kabbalah and re-emergent Galenism but it subordinates all to harmonizing Dionysius and his supposed teacher Paul This first new edition in almost 150 years and first edition of the complete manuscript is edited critically translated expertly and provided with an apparatus that advances historical theological and rhetorical contexts It resituates study of Colet by identifying a coherent center for his theology and agenda for reform in Tudor England

Aspects of the Astrolabe Arianna Borrelli, 2008 The astrolabe often quoted as the earliest computer is a mechanical instrument capable of performing astronomical computations This study offers a new interpretation of its role in the Latin culture of the High Middle Ages highlighting its epistemological significance For Latin scholars around the year 1000 the astrolabe became the earliest non verbal channel to access and assimilate mathematical knowledge from the Arabic culture and could be seen as representing a divine architectonical rationality which humans could share in the mathematical experience The novel methodology of this work combines the results of historical and philological analyses of manuscripts and material sources with the most recent insights on different kinds of mathematical thinking Focussing on drawings and text fragments with a new detailed analysis of ms Paris BnF 7412 11th c the study reconstructs the Latin high medieval mathematical experience its non verbal modes of communication and its relationship with both practice and philosophy

Governance and Leadership in Shrinking Cities Stanisław Mazur, 2023-08-24 The aim of this publication is to look in depth at depopulation a trend that is affecting an increasing number of cities worldwide It has recently become a critical issue with a range of detrimental social economic spatial and financial consequences However attempts by central and local governments to combat depopulation have yet to yield satisfactory results Compelling evidence suggests that one of the reasons for this state of affairs is that the role of local urban leadership in devising solutions mobilizing resources and creating networks to address the problem has been underestimated Moreover according to the authors of this monograph there is a significant positive correlation between urban leadership and the ability to effectively respond to and counteract the negative effects of depopulation Without an understanding of the impact of urban leadership on the ability to address the negative consequences of urban depopulation it is impossible to pursue effective public policies in this regard This book presents a novel approach to explaining the ability of cities to combat depopulation through the prism of urban leadership quality It compares domestic empirical research findings with international case studies and offers a comprehensive review of valuable practices to counter urban shrinkage and depopulation from both academic and practical perspectives Further the book provides a new interpretation of the processes associated with these trends The magnitude of the phenomenon in question the negative spatial economic and social consequences as well as the relatively low effectiveness of policies aimed at its mitigation will make this book an invaluable guide for researchers and students from a wide range of disciplines including urban studies economics public management leadership studies local government climate change and energy transition and urban movements The audience will also comprise of policymakers and urban experts such as sociologists planners social geographers economists and architects
