

A group of four people (two women and two men) and a small dog are sitting on a white blanket on a grassy lawn in a park. They are all smiling and talking to each other. The woman on the left is wearing a black sleeveless top and sunglasses. The woman next to her is wearing a blue top and sunglasses. The man in the center is wearing a grey short-sleeved button-down shirt and sunglasses. The man on the right is wearing a grey t-shirt with red stripes on the sleeves and a black watch. A small, fluffy dog is sitting in the center of the group. There are red plastic cups and a camera on the blanket. The background shows trees and a bright sky. A white banner with a yellow polka-dot border is at the top, and the word 'RELATIONSHIPS' is written in large white letters at the bottom.

The Routledge International Handbook of Shared

Parenting and Best Interest of the Child José Manuel de Torres Perea, Edward Kruk, Margarita Ortiz-Tallo, 2021-05-26 This multidisciplinary volume offers an essential comprehensive study of perspectives on the scope and application of the best interests of the child and focuses mainly on its application in relation to child custody. With expert contributions from psychological, sociological, and legal perspectives, it offers scientific analysis and debate on whether it should be the primary consideration in deciding child custody cases in cases of divorce or separation or whether it should be one of several primary considerations. It explores complex dilemmas inherent in shared parenting and whether the advantages it offers children are sufficient when compared to attributing custody to one parent and limiting visitation rights of the other. Offering a comprehensive analysis of this complex topic, chapters provide detailed insight into the current state of research in this area as well as expert guidelines aimed at resolving the controversies when parents agree or disagree over their children's living arrangements. Cutting edge topics explored include transnational shared parenting, alternative dispute resolution, breastfeeding parents, religious disputes between parents, and the psychological, social, and economic factors that affect shared parenting. The Routledge International Handbook of Shared Parenting and Best Interest of the Child will be essential reading for scholars and graduate students in law, psychology, sociology, and economics interested in shared parenting and family law.

Manual of Psychosocial Rehabilitation Robert King, Chris Lloyd, Tom Meehan, Frank Deane, David Kavanagh, 2012-08-06 Psychosocial Rehabilitation is a comprehensive ready reference for mental health practitioners and students providing practical advice on the full range of interventions for psychosocial rehabilitation. It contextualises the interventions described and provides pointers to enable the reader to explore the theory and research. This manual recognises the wide ranging impact of mental illness and its ramifications on daily life and promotes a recovery model of psychosocial rehabilitation and aims to empower clinicians to engage their clients in tailored rehabilitation plans. The book is divided into five key sections. Section 1 looks at assessment covering tools available in the public domain, instruments, scoring systems, norms, and applications for diagnosis and measurement of symptoms, cognitive functioning, impairment, and recovery. Section 2 covers the full range of therapeutic interventions and offers advice on training and supervision requirements and evaluation of process, impact, and outcome. Section 3 provides manuals and programs for interventions effectively provided as group activities. Section 4 explains how to design a full programme that integrates therapeutic interventions with group programmes as well as services provided by other agencies. The final section looks at peer support and self-help, providing manuals and resources that support programmes and interventions not requiring professional or practitioner direction.

Empowering Employee Proactive Behavior Fahri Özsungur, Fevziye Bekar, 2025-07-01 Proactive employee behaviour refers to the attempt to improve existing conditions in the workplace or create new ones as well as actions to change one's work environment, interpersonal relationships, and socialisation behaviour instead of passively adapting to it.
