Between Dystopia and Utopia Kōnstantinos Apostolou Doxiadēs, 1966 Between Dystopia and Utopia Konstantinos Apostolou Doxiades, 1974 Nineteen Eighty-Four: Science Between Utopia and Dystopia E. Mendelsohn, H. Nowotny, 1984-09-30 Just fifty years ago Julian Huxley the biologist grandson of Thomas Henry Huxley published a book which easily could be seen to represent the prevailing outlook among young scientists of the day If I were a Dictator 1934 The outlook is optimistic the tone playfully rational the intent clear allow science a free hand and through rational planning it could bring order out of the surrounding social chaos He complained however At the moment science is for most part either an intellectual luxury or the paid servant of capitalist industry or the nationalist state When it and its results cannot be fitted into the existing framework it and they are ignored and furthermore the structure of scientific research is grossly lopsided with over emphasis on some kinds of science and partial or entire neglect of others pp 83 84 All this the scientist dictator would set right A new era of scientific humanism would provide alternative visions to the traditional religions with their Gods and the civic religions such as Nazism and fascism Science in Huxley's version carries in it the twin impulses of the utopian imagination Power and Order Of course it was exactly this vision of science which led that other grand son of Thomas Henry Huxley the writer Aldous Huxley to portray scientific discovery as potentially subversive and scientific practice as ultimately enslaving The Palgrave Handbook of Utopian and Dystopian Literatures Peter Marks, Jennifer A. Wagner-Lawlor, Fátima Vieira, 2022-03-15 The Palgrave Handbook of Utopian and Dystopian Literatures celebrates a literary genre already over 500 years old Specially commissioned essays from established and emerging international scholars reflect the vibrancy of utopian vision and its resiliency as idea genre and critical mode Covering politics environment geography body and mind and social organization the volume surveys current research and maps new areas of study The chapters include investigations of anarchism biopolitics and postcolonialism and study film art and literature Each essay considers central questions and key primary works evaluates the most recent research and outlines contemporary debates Literatures of Africa Australia China Latin America and the Middle East are discussed in this global cross disciplinary and comprehensive volume Between Dystopia and Utopia Constantinos Apostolos Doxiadis, 1966 Reinventing Modern Architecture in Greece Marianna Charitonidou, 2025-05-30 This book examines the connection between the politics of the Marshall Plan and urban planning and identifies the key players such as the Greek architect and urban planner Constantinos A Doxiadis and the Italian industrialist Adriano Olivetti It also explores the architects of the Mataroa mission who played a vital role in the cross fertilisation between France and Greece and the role of travel to Greece for architects during the 19th century This book delves into the work of Constantinos A Doxiadis Adriano Olivetti Alison and Peter Smithson Iannis Xenakis Takis Zenetos Henri Lefebvre Cornelius Castoriadis Aris Konstantinidis Dimitris Pikionis and others It sheds light on how Doxiadis introduced ekistics as a novel approach to understanding the science of human settlements This book proposes that the

P. Vanhoutte,2023-11-22 In a 1987 interview Jos Saramago eloquently expressed what could be considered his political philosophical manifesto Human beings should not content themselves with the role of mere observers They bear a responsibility to the world they must actively engage and intervene In 1998 the celebrated writer was honoured with the Nobel Prize for Literature So Saramago did not only as a human being and a citizen but also as an artist refuse to be a passive observer Despite his profound and always critical pessimism he tirelessly propelled both his public and artistic persona toward impactful actions and interventions showcasing an unwavering dedication to reshaping the world This volume seeks to delve into this facet of his legacy exploring it from diverse political and philosophical perspectives

Genres of Transition: Literature and Economy in Portuguese-Speaking Southern Africa Thomas Waller,2024-07-22 This book argues that literary production in Portuguese speaking southern Africa has developed distinctive aesthetic idioms that critically respond to crises of global capitalism and related failures of post colonial governance Drawing from recent research at the intersection of world systems analysis and materialist theories of world literature it identifies and evaluates two generic trends in the post independence literatures of Mozambique and Angola From the mid 1980s to the early 1990s there is a marked tendency in Mozambican literary production towards fictional representations of ghosts spectral effects and gothic narrative techniques In Angola there is an analogous outburst of literary expression from the mid 1990s onwards in which writers increasingly turn towards dystopian images of apocalypse ecological crisis and the disintegration of existing modes of social reproduction Away from a restricted focus on the decline of the post independence Marxist Leninist state the book contends that the upswing in these two genres of writing functions to critically register a world systemic horizon that both surpasses and includes locally determined national realities The patterned repetition of spectral and dystopian forms in Portuguese speaking southern Africa occurred at a time of heightened capitalisation in which the region was subjected to newly expropriative forms of accumulation and ecological enclosure via integration into a reconstellated world system headed by neoliberal finance capital Through close readings of texts by authors such as Mia Couto Suleiman Cassamo Ungulani Ba Ka Khosa Pepetela and Ondjaki this book asks What factors drove literary production towards the figure of the spectre in Mozambique and towards dystopia in Angola What emerging energies and social contradictions found shape in these generic idioms in ways that existing vocabularies were unable to express What does the geo temporal passage from spectrality to dystopia tell us about the history of capitalist development in southern Africa and about the restructuring of political economic parameters across the globe Between Dream and Nature Utopia/Dystopia Michael D. Gordin, Helen Tilley, Gyan Prakash, 2010-08-23 The concepts of utopia and dystopia have received much historical attention. Utopias have traditionally signified the ideal future large scale social political ethical and religious spaces that have yet to be realized. Utopia Dystopia offers a fresh approach to these ideas. Rather than locate utopias in grandiose programs of future totality the book treats these concepts as historically grounded categories and examines how individuals and groups throughout time have interpreted utopian visions in their daily present with an eye toward the future. From colonial and postcolonial Africa to pre Marxist and Stalinist Eastern Europe from the social life of fossil fuels to dreams of nuclear power and from everyday politics in contemporary India to imagined architectures of postwar Britain this interdisciplinary collection provides new understandings of the utopian dystopian experience. The essays look at such issues as imaginary utopian perspectives leading to the 1856 57 Xhosa Cattle Killing in South Africa the functioning racist utopia behind the Rhodesian independence movement the utopia of the peaceful atom and its global dissemination in the mid 1950s the possibilities for an everyday utopia in modern cities and how the Stalinist purges of the 1930s served as an extension of the utopian dystopian relationship.
