Between Knowing Believing:

A Few Plain Words about what Every Christian Ought to Know, Believe, and Do in Order to be Saved, 1857

The Works of Aurelius Augustine: Writings in connection with the Manichaeian heresy, translated by Richard Stothert.
1872 Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1872

GERTRUDE STEIN Ultimate Collection: Novels, Short Stories, Poetry, Plays, Memoirs & Essays Gertrude Stein, 2023-12-10 Gertrude Stein's Ultimate Collection encapsulates the avant garde spirit of her literary oeuvre presenting a rich tapestry of novels short stories poetry plays memoirs and essays Stein's experimental style eschews traditional narrative forms employing stream of consciousness techniques and a unique use of repetition that invites the reader to immerse themselves in the rhythm of her prose This collection not only showcases her contributions to modernism but also reflects the zeitgeist of the early 20th century a period of profound cultural and artistic upheaval that Stein was pivotal in shaping Gertrude Stein an American expatriate in Paris was at the forefront of the artistic movements of her time befriending luminaries such as Pablo Picasso and Ernest Hemingway Her own experiences as a Jewish woman and a groundbreaking writer informed her exploration of identity language and the very nature of art itself Stein's insistence on the significance of the structure and sound of language reveals her innovative approach to writing emerging from her deep engagement with both psychology and the avant garde This collection is a treasure for both aficionados of modernist literature and newcomers alike offering an expansive view of Stein's intellectual landscape Readers will find in this anthology not just a compilation of her works but a gateway into the mind of a literary revolutionary whose legacy continues to influence writers and artists today

Action Learning Wojciech W. Gasparski, 2017-11-30 Praxiology is the study of working and doing from the point of view of effectiveness It has three components analysis of concepts involving purposive actions critique of modes of action from the viewpoint of efficiency and normative advisory aspects in recommendations for increasing human efficacy This sixth volume of the Praxiology series focuses on action learning Learning from distinguishable action is surprisingly different than learning from a subject expert in human or book form For those who have worked with and in action learning the latest form is always distinguishably different from a former experience Action learning programs are not in general intended to tackle puzzles namely questions to which an answer may be said to exist even if that answer is difficult to find action learning is intended to help to develop the ability to tackle problems or opportunities of which different persons all experienced intelligent and motivated might well advocate different courses of action all reasonable The essentials of action learning according to this volume are there can be no learning unless the participant receives feedback about his/her performance participants learn only of their own volition and never at the will of others the volition to learn is most readily engendered by the lure of success or by the fear of calamity Building upon these essentials the authors view action learning as a process of inquiry beginning with the experience of not knowing what to do next and finding that an answer is not available from current expertise All chapters in this volume are sound contributions to
