Advancing Family Preservation Practice:

Advancing Family Preservation Practice E. Susan Morton, R. Kevin Grigsby, 1992-11-06 Are there effective ways to support a family with problems for example neglect abuse HIV terminal illness in order to prevent it breaking up and make a positive change possible This book examines Intensive Family Preservation Services tracing the history of these services their success at solving family problems how families respond to the services and how their effectiveness varies according to the type of problem a family is experiencing Through an exploration of these issues the contributors offer their own experience as a basis for tracing the evolution of IFPS and the advances that have been made in the field The Family Unification Program Debra J. Rog, 1997 Child Welfare: Issues in child welfare Nick Frost, 2005 This collection focuses on child welfare in its specific sense welfare and social interventions with children and young people undertaken by State bodies or NGO s The term child welfare is deployed differently in diverse international settings In the United Kingdom child welfare tends to refer to individualised programmes for children who have experienced problems in their lives In India to take a contrasting example it can also refer to major housing and nutrition programmes This collection takes an inclusive approach to international perspectives The collection is completed by a new general introduction by the editor individual volume introductions and a full index Titles also available in this series include Medical Sociology November 2004 4 Volumes 495 and the forthcoming collection Health Care Systems 2005 3 Volumes c 395 Evaluating Family-Based Services Peter J. Pecora, 2018-02-06 First Published in 2018 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an Informa company Family Preservation Journal, 2000 Child Protective Services Diane DePanfilis, 2003 From the Preface This manual Child Protective Services A Guide for Caseworkers examines the roles and responsibilities of child protective services CPS workers who are at the forefront of every community s child protection efforts The manual describes the basic stages of the CPS process and the steps necessary to accomplish each stage intake initial assessment or investigation family assessment case planning service provision evaluation of family progress and case closure Best practices and critical issues in casework practice are underscored throughout The primary audience for this manual includes CPS caseworkers supervisors and administrators State and local CPS agency trainers may use the manual for preservice or inservice training of CPS caseworkers while schools of social work may add it to class reading lists to orient students to the field of child protection In addition other professionals and concerned community members may consult the manual for a greater understanding of the child protection process This manual builds on the information presented in A Coordinated Response to Child Abuse and Neglect The Foundation for Practice Readers are encouraged to begin with that manual as it addresses important information on which CPS practice is based including definitions of child maltreatment risk factors consequences and the Federal and State basis for intervention Some manuals in the series also may be of interest in understanding the roles of other professional groups in responding to child abuse and neglect including Substance abuse treatment providers Domestic violence victim advocates Educators Law enforcement personnel Other manuals address special issues such as building partnerships and working with the courts on CPS cases

The Evidence-Based Practice Chris E. Stout,Randy A. Hayes,2004-11-03 Evidence Based Practice EBP a trend started in the medical community is rapidly becoming of critical importance to the mental health profession as insurance companies begin to offer preferential pay to organizations using it Featuring contributions from top researchers in the field this groundbreaking book covers everything from what EBP is and its relevance to behavioural health to specific models for application and implementation building best practice protocols and evaluating bottom line effectiveness in your organization

Family Preservation and Support Services and California's Families ,1996

Working with Families Allie C. Kilpatrick,Thomas P. Holland,2006 The fourth edition of Working with Families presents an innovative model for choosing specific intervention methods that meet the discriminate level of need of a particular family Thomas P Holland has been added as a second author to help update and maintain the most current text possible

Instructor's Edition for Understanding Generalist Practice Kirst-Ashman,2001-07

The Family Unification Program Debra J. Rog,Ariana M. Gilbert-Mongelli,Ezell Lundy,1998 In 1990 Congress authorized the Family Unification Program FUP in an effort to reunify children with their parents and to prevent out of home placement of children by providing timely housing assistance coordinated with child welfare services This final evaluation report examines the design and implementation of FUP the background and characteristics of the families served and the status of those families one year after they were accepted into the program

Does Family Preservation Serve a Child's Best Interests? Howard Altstein,Ruth G. McRoy,2000 The central issue posed in this book is whether the interests of abused and neglected children are best served by family preservation or adoption The two authors take up opposing sides of the argument each offering a view on whether truly dysfunctional families should always remain together

Preserving and Strengthening Small Towns and Rural Communities Iris Carlton-LaNey,Richard L. Edwards,P. Nelson Reid,1999 A compilation of the most dynamic and exemplary presentations at the 23rd Annual National Institute on Social Work and Human Services in Rural Areas this volume offers a much needed generalist approach to practice in the rural environment Preserving and Strengthening defines the issues and crises of surprisingly diverse populations and illustrates the myriad solutions and interventions available to the social work practitioner in the rural context The book defines the specific needs of the small town and rural populations of the United States and Canada from the familial societal economic agency and empowerment perspectives recognizes the diverse range of cultural and ethnic groups including African Americans American Indians and Canadian First Nations People addresses the traditional way of life found in rural communities and offers approaches to enhance it and assembles the research and experiences of leading practitioners in the rural environment International Perspectives on Family Support Walter Hellinckx, M. J. Colton, Margaret Williams, 1997 Family centred programmes comprise one of the fastest growing programme areas in child welfare This book provides an international overview of family support and preservation programmes with attention both to the general situation with respect to family preservation in different countries and specific types of intervention such as video home training Nonresidential Parenting Charlene E. Depner, James H. Bray, 1993-02-04 With burgeoning numbers of nonresidential parents how can policymakers and professionals who work with families address the emotional and financial needs of children who do not live with both parents What resources exist for developing parenting agreements between mothers and fathers who live apart What should be done when a child refuses to visit the nonresidential parent What effect does a parent s remarriage have on children A distinguished roster of scholars addresses these questions by drawing from research policy and practice sources to identify the rich array of roles that nonresidential parents may play in the lives of their children Taking a multidimensional approach that views the family as an entity that changes over time they also explore such issues as variation in nonresidential parenting across ethnic groups financial implications of parenting apart patterns of involvement of nonresidential parents and children s adjustment to remarriage Included in each chapter are implications for further research and social policy This important volume concludes with a chapter that offers new directions for multidimensional approaches to research policy and practice Nonresidential Parenting will make compelling reading for researchers practitioners and students who work with or study families Depner and Bray s collection is especially useful in elaborating its principal contention that a monolithic vision of non residential parenting is a poor basis for policy the book is a competent reflection upon research in the United States British Journal of Social work Consistent with its multidisciplinary approach and its focus on research and application the book is very readable It is unique in the ease with which it integrates research theory and practice Yet the text represents a very scholarly approach to the study of these families and related interventions Major empirical and applied scholarship from a variety of disciplines has been drawn upon to support the book s conclusions and recommendations This book will be an invaluable resource Family Relations Social Work Approaches to Alcohol and Other Drug Problems Maryann Amodeo, 1997 Presenta estudios de casos para mostrar a trabajadores sociales y estudiantes m todos de intervenci n para situaciones relacionadas con el abuso del alcohol y las drogas
