

Look at Your Reflection

Look in a mirror or a calm pond; what do you see? Is it the color of your skin, if you are male or female, thin or overweight, or any other unique features differentiating you from another. Most people grow up believing we are what we see.

When you Awaken, you first begin to question if there is more than just your appearance. You begin to sense your Spirit within not only you, but all others you meet as well. The Spirit intimately connects each of us to the other, and gives our lives meaning. Now, when you gaze deeply at your reflection or into the eyes of others, you are able to see past the learned façade and outer appearance, to the very Essence present within every life.

You begin to realize the body is but a shell, housing our mind, fragile ego, and Spirit within. The Spirit is a piece of God, representing unconditional love meant to be shared selflessly with all. Beginning to interact now with others on a Spiritual level, the genuine meaning of your life's journey is recognized as your Spirit will deeply connect with theirs in a union of understanding, compassion, and love.
