Dangerous Compulsion Gene Grant, 2005-07 In The Education of a 20th Century Political Animal III Arthur Kahn recounts how after returning to New York from a nine month sojourn in the People's Democracies of Eastern Europe he found himself adrift Under Truman's loyalty oaths and blacklistings and McCarthyite Cold War repression the left wing community within which he had participated in activist struggle for more than a decade was in dissolution Reviewing his earlier years Arthur Kahn concluded that except for the periods in which he had a sense of direct involvement in history he felt most alive during his career as a teacher and in this third volume of his autobiography he describes his returning to university at the age of 41 to obtain a doctorate and his subsequent rapid advance to a full professorship as chairman of a Classics Department in a new Canadian university He recounts the vicissitudes he underwent in an abortive struggle to revivify the humanist tradition He reports his success in enriching the lives of his students in establishing fruitful associations with professional colleagues throughout the United States and Canada and in contributing to scholarship with the publication of articles in learned journals and in a twelve year effort in composing a biography of Julius Caesar that would prove to be his magnum opus He recounts too his Dr Jekyll's wrestling with an obdurate Mr Hyde Sexual Murder Louis B. Schlesinger, 2003-08-26 Forensic psychologist and author Louis B Schlesinger delves deep into the minds of sexual murderers It is a place where few dare to tread but a necessary journey if we are to understand the motivations behind their inconceivable actions Culminating nearly 30 years of experience analyzing sexually motivated homicides Sexual Murder Catathymic a Exercise Addiction Heather Travis, In gyms across the world beneath the gleaming veneer of health and wellness culture a hidden crisis unfolds as individuals who began exercising for legitimate health benefits find themselves trapped in compulsive patterns of physical activity that consume their lives damage their bodies and destroy their relationships while being celebrated and encouraged by a society that views exercise as inherently virtuous Exercise addiction represents one of the most paradoxical behavioral addictions where activities universally recognized as beneficial for physical and mental health become sources of obsession compulsion and suffering that can be as destructive as any substance abuse while remaining largely invisible due to cultural blind spots that make it nearly impossible to recognize when healthy behavior has crossed the line into dangerous compulsion The relationship between exercise and addiction challenges fundamental assumptions about what constitutes harmful versus beneficial behavior as physical activity provides genuine health benefits mood enhancement and stress relief that make it difficult to distinguish between healthy enthusiasm for fitness and pathological compulsion that serves psychological rather than physical needs Unlike addictions to obviously harmful substances like alcohol or drugs exercise addiction hides behind the legitimate health benefits of physical activity while creating patterns of compulsive behavior that can cause severe physical injury social isolation and psychological distress A Treatise on the Constitutional Limitations which Rest Upon the Legislative Power of the States of
