Start Small, Stay Small Rob Walling, 2010 Start Small Stay Small is a step by step guide to launching a self funded startup If you re a desktop mobile or web developer this book is your blueprint to getting your startup off the ground with no outside investment This book intentionally avoids topics restricted to venture backed startups such as honing your investment pitch securing funding and figuring out how to use the piles of cash investors keep placing in your lap This book assumes You don't have 6M of investor funds sitting in your bank account You're not going to relocate to the handful of startup hubs in the world You're not going to work 70 hour weeks for low pay with the hope of someday making millions from stock options There's nothing wrong with pursuing venture funding and attempting to grow fast like Amazon Google Twitter and Facebook It just so happened that most people are not in a place to do this Start Small Stay Small also focuses on the single most important element of a startup that most developers avoid marketing There are many great resources for learning how to write code organize source control or connect to a database This book does not cover the technical aspects developers already know or can learn elsewhere It focuses on finding your idea testing it before you build and getting it into the hands of your customers

My Start-Up Life Ben Casnocha,2007-06-30 Ben Casnocha discovered he was entrepreneur at age 12 and hasn't slowed down since In this remarkably instructive book Bendissects the entrepreneurship gene explaining that everyone has inherited it if they have an idea to make the world a better place In Casnocha's case he found a better way for city governments to communicate with constituents on the Web Six years later Comcatehas dozens of municipal clients a growing staff and a record of excellence This book is the story of his start up but also a conversation with his mentors clients and fellow entrepreneurs about how to make a business idea work and how to have the time of your life trying From Pat Lencioni to Marc Benioff of salesforce.com Ben has won over the best and brightest of the business world now it's your turn
