Dance Pathologies Felicia M. McCarren,1998 A history of dance s pathologization may startle readers who find in dance performance grace discipline geometry poetry and the body s transcendence of itself Exploring dance s historical links to the medical and scientific connotations of a pathology this book asks what has subtended the idealization of dance in the West It investigates the nineteenth century response in the intersections of dance literature and medicine to the complex and long standing connections between illness madness poetry and performance In the nineteenth century medicine becomes a major cultural index to measure the body s meanings As a particularly performative form of madness nineteenth century hysteria preserved the traditional connection to dance in medical descriptions of choreas In its withholding of speech and its use of body code dance like hysteria functions as a form of symptomatic expression Yet by working like a symptom dance performance can also be read as a commentary on symptomatology and as a condition of possibility for such alternative approaches to mental illness as psychoanalysis By redeeming as art what is lost in hysteria dance expresses non hysterically what only hysteria had been able to express the somatic translation of idea the physicalization of meaning Medicine s discovery of idea manifesting itself in the body in mental illness strikingly parallels a literary fascination with the ability of nineteenth century dance to manifest idea suggesting that the evolution of medical thinking about mind body relations as they malfunction in madness as well as changes in the cultural reception of danced representations of these relations might be paradigmatic shifts caused by the same cultural factors concern about the body as a site of meaning and about vision as a theater of knowledge The Gods Come Dancing Irit Averbuch,1995 Opera Glass ,1897 The Opera Glass ,1897 The Hibbert Journal Lawrence Pearsall Jacks,George Dawes Hicks,George Stephens Spinks,Lancelot Austin Garrard,1923 A quarterly review of religion theology and philosophy The Dancer's Companion Teri Loren,1978 The Dancer's Cat Celia Anna Nicholson,1926 Workshop for Choreographers and Dancers for the Younger Generation (I-W6), West Java, Indonesia, October 19-26, 1986 ,1987 The Ballet Dancer's Husband Ernest Feydeau,1880 Host Bibliographic Record for Boundwith Item Barcode 30112049683961 and Others ,1910
