Parenting is (Not) Child's Play Orit Josefi Wiseman,2023-11-10 Most parents would say that they love their children passionately They might also admit that at times they experience frustration anger and even disappointment because of disobedience and a lack of cooperation from their children Parenting is Not Child's Play deals with the Special Play Time method a revolutionary and proven tool that empowers both parents and children During a 40 minute weekly play session parents learn not only clear and practical skills in setting boundaries they also gain a deeper understanding of the emotions and worries of their children They discover how to encourage positive behaviour too and thus increase the self esteem of their children Within a short time parents notice positive changes in the home While enjoying mutual fun and play they regain their parental authority and notice an increase in the emotional and social abilities of their children Orit Josefi Wiseman is a non directive play therapist with an M A from the University of York in the United Kingdom She has a clinic in Israel and has rich and extensive experience with parents and children using this method She has also established trainings for families and professionals in the field of education in order for them to improve their communication with and empower the psychological robustness of children During her work Orit has met many parents who have learnt parental skills but could not implement them in real time Her book is written for all those parents Having a deep faith in the efficacy of the method Orit wishes to share her knowledge and make it accessible to every household with children

Child's Play Silken Laumann,2010-05-21 From one of Canada's most inspiring and gifted sports heroes an urgently needed guide to getting our kids active and healthy Like many of us Silken Laumann's fondest childhood memories are of play staying outside until that final call for dinner neighbourhood wide games of Capture the Flag and road hockey that went on for hours But as a parent Silken knows the world has changed We are afraid to let our children out of sight our streets don't feel safe neighbours don't know and rely on each other like they used to While we recognize the need for our kids to be active our fears along with our busy lives and the enormous societal pressure to simultaneously make athletes academics and artists out of our children have led us to schedule their every activity driving them to and from soccer practice piano lessons tutorials We have forgotten just how important unstructured play is for our children's development and well being It keeps kids healthy creative and active it teaches them valuable life skills and most importantly it lets our kids be kids worry free unfettered Child's Play is a call for action a guide to reconnecting with our kids and a blueprint for building safe supportive communities and healthy schools Above all it's a book of simple ideas for parents desperate for change

Intelligent Computing Kohei Arai,2023-08-19 This book is a collection of extremely well articulated insightful and unique state of the art papers presented at the Computing Conference which took place in London on June 22 23 2023 A total of 539 papers were received out of which 193 were selected for presenting after double blind peer review The book covers a wide range of scientific topics including IoT Artificial Intelligence Computing Data Science Networking Data security and Privacy etc The conference was successful in reaping the advantages of both online and offline modes The goal of this conference is to give a platform to researchers with fundamental contributions and to be a premier venue for academic and industry practitioners to share new ideas and development experiences We hope that readers find this book interesting and valuable We also expect that the conference and its publications will be a trigger for further related research and technology improvements in this important subject

The Matrix Ate My Baby Andrew Gibbons,2007-01-01 Parents and teachers are under increasing pressure to make decisions about the technologies that children can and should play with during their early years The media governments toy companies child advocacy organizations and child development experts disseminate many often contradictory claims that influence practices of caring for and educating young children The Matrix Ate My Baby explores these messages that adults receive regarding the values and dangers of new technologies and of the importance of play The book interrogates the value of play as an essential component of learning and the essential role of play in a technological society s aspirations for progress Drawing upon the philosophy of technology this book provides parents teachers and teacher educators with a critique of predominant perspectives regarding the young child s increasingly hi tech world It provides alternative perspectives of technology and education in order to emphasise the importance of questioning and the value of difference for early childhood educators for parents of young children and for research of the child s play with new and old technologies
