Expressive Space Gregory Whistance-Smith,2022-01-19 Video game spaces have vastly expanded the built environment offering new worlds to explore and inhabit Like buildings cities and gardens before them these virtual environments express meaning and communicate ideas and affects through the spatial experiences they afford Drawing on the emerging field of embodied cognition this book explores the dynamic interplay between mind body and environment that sits at the heart of spatial communication To capture the wide diversity of forms that spatial expression can take the book builds a comparative analysis of twelve video games across four types of space spanning ones designed for exploration and inhabitation kinetic enjoyment enacting a situated role and enhancing perception Together these diverse virtual environments suggest the many ways that video games enhance and extend our embodied lives Vision and Values in Design Management David Hands,2017-12-14 Examines the nature and value of design from a range of global perspectives This work explores the relationship between design leadership and management and the application and value of design in the face of future challenges Man-environment Systems ,1982 Radical Pedagogies Beatriz Colomina,Ignacio G. Galán,Evangelos Kotsioris,Anna-Maria Meister,2022-05-31 Experiments in architectural education in the post World War II era that challenged and transformed architectural discourse and practice In the decades after World War II new forms of learning transformed architectural education These radical experiments sought to upend disciplinary foundations and conventional assumptions about the nature of architecture as much as they challenged modernist and colonial norms decentered building imagined new roles for the architect and envisioned participatory forms of practice Although many of the experimental programs were subsequently abandoned terminated or assimilated they nevertheless helped shape and in some sense define architectural discourse and practice This book explores and documents these radical pedagogies and efforts to defy architecture's status quo The experiments include the adaptation of Bauhaus pedagogy as a means of unlearning under the conditions of decolonization in Africa a movement to design for every body including the disabled by architecture students and faculty at the University of California Berkeley the founding of a support network for women interested in the built environment regardless of their academic backgrounds and a design studio in the USSR that offered an alternative to the widespread functionalist approach in Soviet design Viewed through their dissolution and afterlife as well as through their founding stories these projects from the last century raise provocative questions about architecture's role in the new century
