A Hunters Wanderings In Africa:

A Hunter's Wanderings in Africa (Illustrated) Frederick Courteney Selous, 2014-04-15 The Boone and Crockett Club has brought back to life Frederick Courteney Selous epic African adventure in a meticulously remastered high quality paperback edition Follow noted adventurer Selous as he spends nine years amongst the game of the far interior of South Africa as a professional hunter beginning in 1871 at the young age of 20 In his preface he notes my pages are naturally chiefly devoted to the ferae naturae amongst which I have been constantly living Some of my conclusions with regard to lions rhinoceroses or other animal may differ from those arrived at by other men equally competent to give an opinion but at all events they are the result of a long personal experience of the beasts themselves and have not been influenced in any way by the often unreliable stories of old hunters I have only to add that in the following pages I have done my best to express myself in plain intelligible English and if I have not succeeded in this respect as well as I could wish I trust that my shortcomings will be leniently judged when it is remembered that the last nine years of my life have been passed amongst savages during which time I have not undergone the best training for a literary effort Selous delivers with a very entertaining and informative manuscript that will delight hunters adventurers and sportsmen of today A Hunter s Wanderings in Africa is a part of the B C Classics series launched in 2012 by the Boone and Crockett Club Each book in the series was authored by a member of B C in the late 1800s or early 1900s and was hand selected by a committee of vintage hunting literature experts Readers will be taken back to a time when hunting trips didn t happen over a weekend but were adventures spanning weeks months even years exploits in Southeast Africa His real life adventures inspired Sir H Rider Haggard to create the fictional Allan Quatermain character Selous was also a friend of Theodore Roosevelt Cecil Rhodes and Frederick Russell Burnham He was pre eminent within a select group of big game hunters that included Abel Chapman and Arthur Henry Neumann With but very few exceptions Selous was the last of a long line of oldfashioned pioneer hunters of African big game By long odds he was the most famous and conspicuous man of his kind He lived and hunted from the period of the big calibre smoothbore elephant gun that he loaded at the muzzle with a handful of powder as he ran at full speed up through the 577 English express rifle of the 70 s to the highly finished Mannlicher of small calibre and tremendous power In 1881 Selous published his book A Hunter s Wanderings in Africa Being a Narrative of Nine Years Spent Amongst the Game of the Far Interior of South Africa His book as a matter of course abounds in hunting stories of the lion elephant rhino and as these are well told and only just sufficiently flavoured with sporting slang to give them an air of reality or local colour they are quite as likely to interest stay at home readers as sportsmen We need hardly say that Mr Selous was a successful sportsman who made a good thing out of the ivory which he carried away as his spoils The hunting of big game demands of its devotees many sacrifices The hunter must be prepared to endure many and varied hardships in the pursuance of his vocation Hunger thirst fatigue the rigors of climate the scorching sun by day the fever laden mists of night these and many other trials must he encounter if he would taste to the full the joys of the hunter s life Going to South Africa when he was 19 Selous travelled from the Cape of Good Hope to Matabeleland which he reached early in 1872 and where according to his own account he was granted permission by Lobengula King of the Ndebele to shoot game anywhere in his dominions From then until 1890 with a few brief intervals spent in England Selous hunted and explored over the then little known regions north of the Transvaal and south of the Congo Basin shooting elephants and collecting specimens of all kinds for museums and private collections His travels added greatly to the knowledge of the country now known as Zimbabwe He made valuable ethnological investigations and throughout his wanderings often among people who had never previously seen a white man he maintained cordial relations with the chiefs and tribes winning their confidence and esteem notably so in the case of Lobengula In 1890 Selous entered the service of the British South Africa Company at the request of magnate Cecil Rhodes acting as guide to the pioneer expedition to Mashonaland Over 400 miles of road were constructed through a country of forest mountain and swamp and in two and a half months Selous took the column safely to its destination He then went east to Manica concluding arrangements which brought the country there under British control Coming to England in December 1892 he was awarded the Founder s Medal of the Royal Geographical Society in recognition of his extensive explorations and surveys A Hunter's Wanderings in Africa Frederick Courteney Selous, 2016-12-20 Excerpt from A Hunter s Wanderings in Africa Being a Narrative of Nine Years Spent Amongst the Game of the Far Interior of South Africa Containing Accounts of Explorations Beyond the Zambesi on the River Chobe and in the Matabele and Mashuna Countries Since Baldwin s book upon African hunting appeared now

Chobe Four Lions drink by our Camp Their terrific Roaring Return to the Transvaal Ague and Fever Recovery Last Start for the Far Interior On June 18 we left the waggons and crossing the Mababe river at the Masubia towns about nine miles below our waggons made a start northwards accompanied by over fifty Makuba and Masubia Kafirs whom we had hired between us At first we followed the course of the Machabe river but finding that our party was so large as to make it difficult to keep all our Kafirs in meat we separated French and Miller crossing the sand belts to the Sunta river whilst Collison Sell and I held on up the Machabe Two or three days later however as we found that there were many Kafir hunters from Lake Ngami in front of us and as we saw no elephant spoor Collison and I left Sell and struck over to the Chobe where a few days later we rejoined Miller and French We then held along the river north west as far as Mai ini s town but finding no elephant spoor and the Kafirs refusing to take us through the river we turned back and shortly afterwards again met Sell Collison French and
