A Journal Shadows Of Seagulls:

A Journal Dorothy Schultz-Ferg,2002-10-01 When Dorothy S Ferg retired from editorial and computer work in the Chicago Illinois area she began spending a portion of the year writing a journal and exploring the natural world in Door County Wisconsin She also moved to a settlement for seniors on the outskirts of Grayslake Illinois Both environments became a background for the journal with a story running through it Journal of the British Astronomical Association British Astronomical Association,1914 List of members 1890 1913 bound with v 1 23 Shadows Roberto Casati,2007-12-18 In this original wide ranging and endlessly thought provoking work of popular nonfiction a leading science writer uncovers the pervasive presence of shadows in our world For Plato shadows were the symbol of our limitations For Galileo they knocked the Earth from the center of the cosmos They are a source of fear and a symbol of ignorance and they loom large in art and design mythology and folklore physics and metaphysics and architecture and urban planning From shadows puppets and the psychology of shadows to the role of shadows in astronomy and the influence of shadows on the architectural profiles of our cities Roberto Casati awakens our fascination in this tour de force of investigation and imagination In the Woods ,2000 In the Woods Stories from Lakeshore Road focuses on families who have resided on this 85 mile stretch since individual lots were first purchased in the 1920s Stories are grouped thematically in ten chapters that range from the difficulties of coping with primitive cabins in the early years to the professions and avocations of those who now live on the road or did so in the past The book includes numerous black and white photos two colored ones of current residents a fold out map of the road with fire numbers and an index of proper names The author Phyllis Zatlin is daughter of two of the original lot owners
