The Household Book of Poetry Charles Anderson Dana, 1873

The Silver Lining Natalie Dixon, 2013-03-14 Life for me has been a constant battle of ups and downs Yet I am still able to call myself blessed and highly favored Through all the troubles I have faced one thing has never changed That is the fact that my savior Jesus Christ has never allowed me to face them alone In the mist of every storm I have been able to focus on the silver lining surrounding the black clouds that seem to follow me At times I hesitated to call on the father and until I did I suffered the consequences of believing I could control my own fate I am proud to say with God on my side I have proved to be a survivor and will continue to survive whatever this crazy world throws at me I have been put through many test and trials some I aced some I failed but from each one I learned as well as gained wisdom I am able to share my lessons through my poetry and if I can reach 1 person maybe going through a rough time or just needing some encouragement I will feel like my gift hasn t been wasted
