A Loon Alone:

A Loon Alone Pamela Love,2002-01-01 A tranquil pond becomes a frightening place for a loon chick that is separated from his parents by a menacing snapping turtle But the brave little bird remains in his hiding place and also survives encounters with a huge moose a hungry raccoon and a speedy otter In the end he is reunited with his mother and father just as night falls

Crushed Wild Mint Jess Housty,2023-10-14 Crushed Wild Mint is a collection of poems embodying land love and ancestral wisdom deeply rooted to the poet s motherland and their experience as a parent herbalist and careful observer of the patterns and power of their territory Jess Housty grapples with the natural and the supernatural transformation and the hard work of living that our bodies are doing held by mountains by oceans by ancestors and by the grief and love that come with communing Housty s poems are textural blossoms feathers stubborn blots of snow and reading them is a sensory offering that invites the reader s whole body to be transported in the experience Their writing converses with mountains animals and all our kin beyond the human realm as they sit beside their ancestors bones and move throughout the geography of their homeland Housty s exploration of history and futurity ceremony and sexuality grieving and thriving invites us to look both inward and outward to redefine our sense of community Through these poems we can explore living and loving as a practice and placemaking as an essential part of exploring our humanity and relationality
