Available Light Clifford Geertz,2001-07-22 In this collection of essays Clifford Geertz explores the nature of his anthropological work in relation to a broader public serving as the foremost spokesperson of his generation of scholars those who came of age after World War II Geertz who once considered a career in philosophy begins by explaining how he got swept into the revolutionary movement of symbolic anthropology At that point his work began to encompass not only the ethnography of groups in Southeast Asia and North Africa but also the study of how meaning is made in all cultures or to use his phrase to explore the frames of meaning in which people everywhere live out their lives His philosophical orientation helped him to establish the role of anthropology within broader intellectual circles and led him to address the work of such leading thinkers as Charles Taylor Thomas Kuhn William James and Jerome Bruner In this volume Geertz comments on their work as he explores questions in political philosophy psychology and religion that have intrigued him throughout his career but that now hold particular relevance in light of postmodernist thinking and multiculturalism Available Light offers discussions of concepts such as nation identity country and self with a reminder that like symbols in general their meanings are not categorically fixed but grow and change through time and place Available Light Clifford Geertz,2000 Living Without Domination Samuel Clark,2016-05-13 Living Without Domination defends the bold claim that humans can organise themselves to live peacefully and prosperously together in an anarchist utopia Clark refutes errors about what anarchism is about utopianism and about human sociability and its history He then develops an analysis of natural human social activity which places anarchy in the real landscape of sociability along with more familiar possibilities including states and slavery The book is distinctive in bringing the rigour of analytic political philosophy to anarchism which is all too often dismissed out of hand or skated over in popular history

The Gospels and Their Stories in Anthropological Perspective Joseph Verheyden, John S. Kloppenborg, 2018 Back cover How can social scientific approaches to the gospels advance biblical studies This volume offers the proceedings of a conference that brought together a number of expert biblical scholars specialists of ancient religious practices and proponents of an anthropological approach to ancient Christian and Greco Roman religious tradition

Organizational Learning and Communities of Practice in a High-tech Manufacturing Firm Anthony M. Barrett, 2005 This work uses an ethnographic study as the backdrop to address theoretical and philosophical concepts related to organizational learning and social learning theory To frame the rationale for this research the ramifications of modern interpretive and postmodern traditions of organizational studies are considered The social character of knowledge and human life is seminal to understanding how an organization learns

The Power of Iranian Narratives Laleh Shahideh, 2004-01-06 This book examines how through the mediation of past history and current cultural and professional experience selected Iranian professionals who came to the United States after the 1979 Islamic Revolution created new identities and possibilities for the future The stories and experiences of these individuals speak of elements that have contributed to Iranians view of themselves and their relationship with one another The study touches upon the conflict between Iranians national cultural and religious identities and explains how individuals understanding of power and capacity to act is interrelated with the sequences continuity and preservation of historical events Furthermore it describes how through interpretation and re interpretation of narratives individuals and communities can reflect upon their understanding and ownership of power and make changes that reconnect and empower them in the future The power of narrative is a medium to initiate a long overdue dialogue amongst Iranians that could help heal the history of a thousand years

The Anthropology of Organisations
Alberto Corsín Jiménez, 2007 This volume brings together a selection of classic and contemporary articles written by anthropologists over the last sixty years The essays reflect the move from earlier preoccupations with culture and relationality and cast new light on the relevance of ethnography for organisational and social theory Looking Backward and Looking Forward

Harvey J. Graff, 2005 Asserting the need for social science historians to examine their own field this wide ranging volume offers an intellectual history and critical evaluation of interdisciplinary social science and social science historiography The editors present a creative experimental mix of topics and genres spanning a range of contemporary thought in the field exploring the past present and future of social science history This book comes at a time when there is great academic interest in the future of the disciplines and in their place within the organization of university education

Based on the 25th anniversary conference of the Social Science History Association 2000 Beyond Words Wendy Harding, Jacky Martin, 2007 This is a book about reading or rather about the moment when the usual frames of interpretation no longer apply That is where the Othering Excursion begins Through disruptive forms of rhetoric writers discard the structures and norms of the cultural system and use the disorders thus created to suggest what lies beyond it Cultivating distortion conceptual blocks and chaotic constructions their texts flout normal processes of interpretation Whereas traditional approaches often overlook these disorders or treat them as a form of informational noise in this study they become the basis of critical reflection Harding and Martin elaborate a critical concept and a range of reading methods to deal with what seem to be zones of obscurity in literary texts Cutting across boundaries of race ethnicity and gender they treat a wide range of poetry and short fiction that challenges traditional interpretations Giving new readings of canonical texts the book examines works by American authors that are widely read and taught like Elizabeth Bishop A R Ammons Don DeLillo Leslie Marmon Silko or Sandra Cisneros At the same time it includes studies of emerging writers like Kate Braverman Dan Chaon or Chase Twichell There is something deeply moving in witnessing the birth of a new concept And indeed Wendy Harding and Jacky Martin TM s concept of Othering is a welcome addition to an already crowded field where concepts like oedifference oalterity or oehybridity are firmly established But the new concept is more than an addition it is more in the nature of a substitution as it aims to replace the now exhausted concepts allows the authors to avoid the trivialities of a criticism based on gender and race and by focusing on form and language or style to recapture the now largely lost intuitions of close reading This combination of close reading and a firm grasp of theory is one of the attractions of the book I am impressed by their mastery of the intricacies of theory and the range of their literary corpus in terms both of genres and texts I have no doubt that their book will be a major contribution to the renewal of the study of contemporary American literature

Professor Jean Jacques Lecercle University of Nanterre Paris In Beyond Words Wendy Harding and Jacky Martin offer a new attitude to reading that approaches true diversity by ignoring trends toward traditional groupings of authors by race and gender and instead examining democratically recent American literature in terms of its unique and peculiar achievements In choosing texts that employ the rhetoric of the inexpressible the authors have identified Othering as the common thread running through short fiction and poetry by authors as varied as Allen Ginsberg Raymond Carver Sandra Cisneros Adrienne Rich and Li Young Lee In transliterating the language of the ineffable and unspoken Beyond Words employs its superbly original methodology toward unfolding previously inaccessible layers of meaning and provoking a fuller understanding of the creative process and its cultural milieu Michael Waters Professor of English at Salisbury University USA A germinal study from an other in this case European perspective of an at once idiosyncratic and indicative range of American texts with a view of how they themselves encounter the unexamined and unexpected Marilyn Hacker Professor at City College of New York and CUNY Graduate Center Invigorating and original Beyond Words: The Othering Excursion in Contemporary American Literature challenges conventional ways of approaching literary texts Eschewing binaries Wendy Harding and Jacky Martin propose a new approach to reading and analyzing the heterogeneity of recent American literature By juxtaposing both well known and less familiar poetry and short fiction by authors as various as Gayl Jones John Ashbery Russell Banks and Marilyn Nelson Harding and Martin consider a stimulating variety of texts that cross aesthetic generic canonical and political boundaries Harding and Martin TM s polysemous approach to literary texts a procedure they call othering is groundbreaking and enlightening Beyond Words provides rich insights for scholars and general readers alike Harding and Martin TM s new mapping of American literature is a remarkable achievement certain to provoke dialogue for decades to come Sue Standing Jane Ruby Professor of English Wheaton College Norton Massachusetts In this new book with the apt title Beyond Words: The Othering Excursion in Contemporary American Literature Wendy Harding and Jacky Martin promise to generate intense conversation about their conceptual approach to reading canonical as well as newer texts in late twentieth century American literature Beyond Words favors a shift in thinking about all texts that defy conventional analysis and it resists the cleavages that it finds in unsatisfactory terms like alterity and hybridity conceived to account for differences in gender racial ethnic and class contexts Re conceiving Othering as a corroborative and complementary methodology rather than a splintered one Beyond Words invites an illuminating comprehensive analysis of literary production in late twentieth century American texts Helena Woodard Associate Professor of English Department of English University of Texas at Austin USA Library Journal ,2000 Choice ,2000 The Library Journal ,2000 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Defiance and Deference in Mexico's Colonial North Susan M.
