Avant Garde In Exhibition Making It New:

The Avant-garde in Exhibition Bruce Altshuler, 1994 Through photographs of personalities installations and works of art and in a lively text that recounts the artistic thinking as well as the gossip surrounding each movement this volume presents a complete overview of 20th century avant garde art Focusing on breakthrough exhibitions the book tells the story of each show and that of the movement that inspired it Making it New! Robert McKaskell, Marco Y. Topalian, Art Gallery of Windsor, Glenbow Museum, 2000

Curationism David Balzer, 2014-09-22 Now that we curate even lunch what happens to the role of the connoisseur in contemporary culture Curate is now a buzzword applied to everything from music festivals to artisanal cheese Inside the art world the curator reigns supreme acting as the face of high profile group shows and biennials in a way that can eclipse and assimilate the contributions of individual artists At the same time curatorial studies programs continue to grow in popularity and businesses are increasingly adopting curation as a means of adding value to content and courting demographics Everyone it seems is a now a curator But what is a curator exactly And what does the explosive popularity of curating say about our culture s relationship with taste labour and the avant garde In this incisive and original study critic David Balzer travels through art history and around the globe to explore the cult of curation where it began how it came to dominate museums and galleries and how it was co opted at the turn of the millennium as the dominant mode of organizing and giving value to content At the centre of the book is a paradox curation is institutionalized and expertise driven like never before yet the first independent curators were not formally trained and any act of choosing has become curating Is the professional curator an oxymoron Has curation reached a sort of endgame where its widespread fetishization has led to its own demise David Balzer has contributed to publications including the Believer Modern Painters Artforum com and The Globe and Mail and is the author of Contrivances a short fiction collection He is currently Associate Editor at Canadian Art magazine Balzer was born in Winnipeg and currently resides in Toronto where he makes a living as a critic editor and teacher

Cinema of the Present Lisa Robertson, 2014-10-07 A twenty five frames per second look at the kinetic cinematic self by a master poet New Directions in Print Culture Studies Jesse W. Schwartz, Daniel Worden, 2022-06-16 New Directions in Print Culture Studies features new methods and approaches to cultural and literary history that draw on periodicals print culture and material culture thus revising and rewriting what we think we know about the aesthetic cultural and social history of transnational America The unifying questions posed and answered in this book are methodological How can we make material archival objects meaningful How can we engage and contest dominant conceptions of aesthetic historical and literary periods How can we present archival material in ways that make it accessible to other scholars and students What theoretical commitments does a focus on material objects entail New Directions in Print Culture Studies brings together leading scholars to address the methodological historical and theoretical commitments that emerge from studying how periodicals books images and ideas circulated from the 19th century to the present Reaching beyond national boundaries the essays in this book focus on the different materials and archives we can use to rewrite literary history in ways that highlight not a canon of major literary works but instead the networks dialogues and tensions that define print cultures in various moments and movements
