most have barely encountered Asian or indigenous people before speak next to no Borneo languages and know little about Dayaks other than that they have been and may still be headhunters They fear that on arrival the Dayaks will kill them or hand them over to the Japanese For their part some Dayaks have never before seen a white face So begins the story of Operation Semut an Australian secret operation launched by the organization codenamed Services Reconnaissance Department popularly known as Z Special Unit in the final months of WWII Anthropologist Christine Helliwell has called on her years of first hand knowledge of Borneo interviewed more than one hundred Dayak people and all the remaining Semut operatives and consulted thousands of military and other documents to piece together this astonishing story Focusing on the operation s activities along two of Borneo s great rivers the Baram and Rejang the book provides a detailed military history of Semut II s and Semut III s brutal guerrilla campaign against the Japanese and reveals the decisive but long overlooked Dayak role in the operation But this is no ordinary history Helliwell captures vividly the sounds smells and tastes of the jungles into which the operatives are plunged an environment so terrifying that many are unsure whether jungle or Japanese is the greater enemy And she takes us into the lives and cavernous longhouses of the Dayaks on whom their survival depends The result is a truly unique account of the encounter between two very different cultures amidst the savagery of the Pacific War
