Autumn Window William Marr, 1995 The Red Brush Wilt L. Idema, Beata Grant, 2020-03-23 One of the most exciting recent developments in the study of Chinese literature has been the rediscovery of an extremely rich and diverse tradition of women's writing of the imperial period 221 B C E 1911 C E Many of these writings are of considerable literary quality Others provide us with moving insights into the lives and feelings of a surprisingly diverse group of women living in Confucian China a society that perhaps more than any other is known for its patriarchal tradition Because of the burgeoning interest in the study of both premodern and modern women in China several scholarly books articles and even anthologies of women's poetry have been published in the last two decades This anthology differs from previous works by offering a glimpse of women's writings not only in poetry but in other genres as well including essays and letters drama religious writing and narrative fiction The authors have presented the selections within their respective biographical and historical contexts This comprehensive approach helps to clarify traditional Chinese ideas on the nature and function of literature as well as on the role of the woman writer Selective Guide to Chinese Literature 1900-1949, Volume 3 Poem Haft, 2023-07-24

Critical Readings on Tang China Paul W. Kroll, 2019-01-14 The Tang dynasty lasting from 618 to 907 was the high point of medieval Chinese history featuring unprecedented achievements in governmental organization economic and territorial expansion literature the arts and religion Many Tang practices continued with various developments to influence Chinese society for the next thousand years For these and other reasons the Tang has been a key focus of Western sinologists This volume presents English language reprints of fifty seven critical studies of the Tang in the three general categories of political history literature and cultural history and religion The articles and book chapters included here are important scholarly benchmarks that will serve as the starting point for anyone interested in the study of medieval China Design

Computing and Cognition '18 John S. Gero, 2019-01-07 This is the proceedings of the Eighth International Conference on Design Computing and Cognition DCC 18 held at the Politecnico di Milano in Italy This volume presents both advances in theory and applications and demonstrates the depth and breadth of design computing and design cognition Design thinking the label given to the acts of designing has become a paradigmatic view that has transcended the discipline of design and is now widely used in business and elsewhere As a consequence there is an increasing interest in design research This volume contains papers that represent the state of the art research and developments in design computing and design cognition This book is of particular interest to researchers developers and users of advanced computation in design and those who need to gain a better understanding of designing that can be obtained through empirical studies Hung lou meng, or the dream of the red chamber Chan Ts'ao, 1893 An Introduction to Chinese Poetry Michael Fuller, 2020-10-26 This innovative textbook for learning classical Chinese poetry moves beyond the traditional anthology of poems translated into English and instead brings readers including those with no knowledge of Chinese as close as possible to the texture of the poems in their original language The first two chapters introduce the features of classical Chinese that are important for poetry and then survey the formal and rhetorical conventions of classical poetry The core chapters present the major poets and poems of the Chinese poetic tradition from earliest times to the lyrics of the Song Dynasty 960 1279 Each chapter begins with an overview of the historical context for the poetry of a particular period and provides a brief biography for each poet Each of the poems appears in the original Chinese with a word by word translation followed by Michael A Fuller s unadorned translation and a more polished version by modern translators A question based study guide highlights the important issues in reading and understanding each particular text Designed for classroom use and for self study the textbook s goal is to help the reader appreciate both the distinctive voices of the major writers in the Chinese poetic tradition and the grand contours of the development of that tradition

Chinese Narratology I Yang Yi, 2023-11-30 As the first volume of a two volume set on Chinese narratology this title introduces the cultural fundamentals that nurture Chinese literary works and investigates the structure and time of Chinese narrative In the introductory chapter the author examines the intrinsic association between Chinese writers narrative techniques and China s cultural background by putting forward a Principle of Duixing to facilitate the study of those techniques and three steps to revisit Chinese narrative Based on Western narrative theories and a close reading of outstanding Chinese literary classics the volume focuses on structure and time in Chinese narrative The first part on structure jiegou identifies five essential themes to analyze the dual dynamic structure of Chinese narrative In terms of aspects of time the author demonstrates how the holistic view of time and space in the Chinese tradition influences the chronological framework of narratives and shapes the outset of a story The book is a must read for scholars and students interested in narrative theory Chinese culture and literature and the dialogue between Chinese and Western narratological studies
