Although Gardner's career spanned a long period of time and continued until a few years before her own death in 1990 she is better remembered today for being at the forefront of tabloids and gossip. While the same could be said of any major Hollywood celebrity it was especially true with Gardner because of her third husband Frank Sinatra who left his previous wife Nancy for her. The couple had a tumultuous marriage that intrigued just about everyone even though she confided to a friend "With him it's impossible it's like being with a woman. He's so gentle. It's as though he thinks I'll break as though I'm a piece of Dresden china and he's gonna hurt me." The marriage lasted just 6 years and Gardner went on to engage in other high profile relationships. She was able to put together an autobiography before her death and in it she ruefully notes "Although no one believes me I have always been a country girl and still have a country girl's values."
