Avenging Disco Godfather:

Reflections on Blaxploitation David Walker, Andrew J. Rausch, Chris Watson, 2009-03-30 In the early 1970s a new breed of film emerged that would completely change the way black people were presented in movies With their afros picked to spherical perfection and their guns blazing big bad soul brothers and super sexy sisters lit up movie theaters across the country Never before had black men and women appeared on screen in quite this way In time these films would be called blaxploitation And while it has long been debated exactly which film launched the blaxploitation era the financial success of Melvin Van Peebles s Sweet Sweetback s Baadasssss Song and Gordon Parks s Shaft helped open the flood gates for the more than 200 films that are now considered blaxploitation Reflections on Blaxploitation Actors and Directors Speak is a collection of interviews with many of the men and women who defined the genre In candid conversations some of the most important figures of the era describe what it was like to work on these films and what impact they had on American culture Among those interviewed are such icons as Jim Brown Slaughter Antonio Fargas Foxy Brown Gloria Hendry Hell Up in Harlem Jim Kelly Black Belt Jones Ron O Neal Superfly William Marshall Blacula and Fred Williamson Hammer Also featured here are some of the most influential names behind the scenes including Larry Cohen Black Caesar Oscar Williams Five on the Black Hand Side and Melvin Van Peebles This volume also includes a filmography of every known or rumored blaxploitation film including their availability on VHS and DVD

Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry, Venice T. Berry, 2015-05-07 As early as 1909 African Americans were utilizing the new medium of cinema to catalogue the world around them using the film camera as a device to capture their lives and their history The daunting subject of race and ethnicity permeated life in America at the turn of the twentieth century and due to the effect of certain early films specific television images and an often biased news media it still plagues us today As new technologies bring the power of the moving image to the masses African Americans will shoot and edit on laptop computers and share their stories with a global audience via the World Wide Web These independently produced visions will add to the diverse cache of African American images being displayed on an ever expanding silver screen This wide range of stories topics views and genres will finally give the world a glimpse of African American life that has long been ignored and has yet to be seen This second edition of Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1400 cross referenced entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about African American cinema

Berry, 2009-09-02 On 4 July 1910 in 100 degree heat at an outdoor boxing ring near Reno Nevada film cameras recorded and thousands of fans witnessed former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries reluctant return from retirement to fight Jack Johnson a black man After 14 grueling rounds Johnson knocked out Jeffries and for the first time in history there was a black heavyweight champion of the world At least 10 people lost their lives because of Johnson s victory and hundreds more were injured due to white retaliation and wild celebrations in the streets Public screenings received instantaneous protests and hundreds of cities barred the film from being shown Congress even passed a law making it a federal offense to transport moving pictures of prizefights across state lines and thus the most powerful portrayal of a black man ever recorded on film was made virtually invisible This is but one of the hundreds of films covered in The A to Z of African American Cinema which includes everything from The Birth of a Nation to Crash In addition to the films brief biographies of African American actors and actresses such as Sidney Poitier James Earl Jones Halle Berry Eddie Murphy Whoopi Goldberg Denzel Washington and Jamie Foxx can be found in this reference Through a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes black white photos and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards film credits and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history
