A Second Chance To Get It Right Ronald Bagliere,2021-12-28 Imagine this you re sixty years old divorced broke You ve squandered away being the husband and father you should ve been to your wife and children in your quest for status among your architect peers Don t worry that s all about to change Unfortunate encounters with large trucks on the highway have a way of altering your plans like jettisoning you back into the past to wake up next to a woman you dated in college You re also about to realize she hasn t aged a day and neither have you Thirty years stripped away just like that And as a bonus you have a six year old son you have no recollection of You also have a new home a brand new career new friends and family and skills you never had in your old life There s nothing like straddling two distinct lives trying to figure out how you know some things and yet not others If only you could remember your past in this new world But what do people really know about you that you don t know about yourself What kind of person are you What secrets have you kept from those you love in this life Is this your chance to redeem yourself or are you fated to repeat the life you left behind and end up alone again Better figure it out and quick
