Anticorruption in Transition 2 Cheryl Williamson Gray, Joel S. Hellman, Randi Ryterman, 2004-01-01 Annotation Analyzing patterns and trends in corruption in business government interactions in the transition economies of Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union this title points to some encouraging signs that the magnitude and negative impact corruption exerts on businesses may be declining in many countries in the region The long term sustainability of recent improvements is not certain however and the challenges ahead remain formidable Anticorruption in Transition 2 Cheryl Gray, 2004 Anticorruption in Transition 2 Cheryl Williamson Gray, 2004 Anti-corruption Reforms in Bulgaria, 2007 The System Made Me Do it Rasma Karklins, 2016-07-01 Strike up a conversation with a citizen from the post communist region and invariably the talk will turn to the topic of corruption the misuse of public power for private gain People are sure that corruption is widespread whether from their own experiences or stories they have heard from others They feel frustrated that there seems to be nothing they can do about it that they are helpless and that they are being played for fools And many are cynical they feel that they too have to play the game because the system compels them to do so But what system exactly What are the structures and mechanisms of corruption in post communist societies The System Made Me Do It is the first comprehensive study of the origin nature and consequences of corruption in post communist societies While international actors decry corruption as a major impediment to democracy building and economic development the problem is not well understood This book fills that gap and suggests innovative and practical institutional strategies for containing corruption It achieves a rare and perfect balance of disciplined analysis practicality and passion

Anticorruption in Transition, 2000-01-01 With the increasing recognition across the world of the damaging effects of corruption on economic growth and social stability This report seeks to unpack the varied practices of corruption to identify and compare different patterns of the transition countries of Central and Eastern Europe the Baltic states and the Commonwealth of Independent States It then draws out lessons for tailoring anticorruption strategies to address the variation across the region in an effort to target reforms more effectively The report draws on many sources of ongoing research and lessons of experience including the World Bank's work in this area It is intended as a contribution to the growing policy dialogue on developing practical strategies for reducing corruption Fighting Corruption in Eastern Europe Diana Schmidt-Pfister, Holger Moroff, 2013-09-13 Anti corruption programmes projects and campaigns have come to constitute an essential aspect of good governance promotion over the last two decades The post communist countries in Eastern Europe have presented one of the first key targets of transnational anti corruption efforts and indeed most of these countries have shown an impressive record of respective measures Yet path breaking institutional and policy developments have not set in before the mid 2000s both at the international level and in most Eastern European countries Are these the beginnings of a mutually synergetic success story In order to answer this question we need to better understand the complex interplay between the international and domestic domains in this policy field and geographic region This book provides in depth and comparative insights about this interplay with a particular focus on the involvement of domestic social movements governmental political machines and international legal mechanisms We find that on all three levels of analysis political and material interests of relevant actors are complemented and at times contradicted by normative claims Moreover at the interfaces of the three levels coincidental and spontaneous developments have largely outweighed systematic implementation and coordination of appropriate anti corruption strategies This book is based on a special issue of Global Crime Fighting Corruption in Public Procurement Sope Williams,2012-11-06 This book examines the issues and challenges raised by the debarment or disqualification of corrupt suppliers from public contracts comparing and contrasting the legal practical and institutional approaches to the implementation of the disqualification Crime Without Punishment ,2009 Publications Catalog World Bank,2006-07 Problems of Post-communism ,2002 Trends in Corruption and Regulatory Burden in Eastern Europe and Central Asia World Bank,2011 This report has been prepared by Stephen Knack and Gregory Kisunko P vii Annual World Bank Conference on Development Economics ,2007 Specialised Anti-Corruption Institutions Review of Models OECD,2008-04-04 International anti corruption treaties including the UN Convention against Corruption require member states to establish two types of anti corruption institutions one to prevent corruption and the other to combat corruption through law CORRUPTION AND ANTICORRUPTION IN THE CZECH REPUBLIC LUBOMIR LIZAL AND EVZEN KOCENDA,2000 La nouvelle législation commerciale en Serbie et Monténégro ,2004 Southwestern Journal of Law and Trade in the Americas ,2005 Constructing Alternatives Alejandro Bendaña,2005 American Book Publishing Record ,2004 Development Outreach ,2004
