Deep Currents Valerie Haig-Brown,1997 The life through letters of a most amazing couple J. F. Bosher,2010-04

During the century 1850 1950 Vancouver Island attracted Imperial officers and other Imperials from India the British Isles and elsewhere in the Empire Victoria was the main British port on the north west Pacific Coast for forty years before the city of Vancouver was founded in 1886 to be the coastal terminus of the Canadian Pacific Railway These two coastal cities were historically and geographically different The Island joined Canada in 1871 and thirty five years later the Royal Navy withdrew from Esquimalt but Island communities did not lose their Imperial character until the 1950s P 4 of cover Planet Savers

Kevin Desmond,2017-09-08 Protecting the planet is everyone s work But we all have our own heroes in whatever area we are working Planet Savers brings together the varied stories of the hundreds of movers and shakers that have spoken up throughout history and taken action to defend the world from pollution deforestation species loss and climate change From Theodore Roosevelt to Al Gore from Francis of Assisi to David Attenborough and from hundreds more men and women that you will know little if anything about Scientists artists business people priests lawyers poets politicians activists and more from every continent of the world Their work has enthused us about the natural world and warned us that we must do much more to preserve it The Indian woman who became the world s first environmental martyr the Baptist Reverend who asked What Would Jesus Drive the Quaker big game hunter who set up the first conservation organisation the Shakespearian actor who revolutionised organic gardening and the housewife whose campaign against toxic waste forced a President to act The book is a cornucopia of people who from time immemorial have put their careers reputations and lives on the line to protect our planet from its governing inhabitants the human race Today as thousands of species of animals and plants are faced with extinction thousands of years of indigenous knowledge is lost in the face of technological advance and we become more and more aware of the potential doomsday scenario of a warming world we need Planet Savers more than ever Our inspiration can be the 301 environmental lives portrayed in this book These people cared enough to do something about it Planet Savers is both a tribute and a catalyst a tribute to the people that loved the planet enough to want to act to save it and a catalyst for the people who will be inspired to act after reading it New Planet Savers are at work right now in rainforests and megacities in community centres and boardrooms at road protests and in courtrooms all over the world If this book has one great aim it is to inspire you the reader to join them It is a book that every home should own On Their Own Terms Haley

Beyond the City Limits R.W. Sandwell, 2011-11-01 Historians have not usually identified British Columbia as a rural province B C historiography has been dominated by mining logging and fishing and theorized within the context of large scale laissez faire capitalism and economic individualism Silences in the historical record have exacerbated this situation and lent tacit support to the dominance of resource based capitalism as the shaping force in B C history The essays in Beyond the City Limits all published here for the first time decisively break this silence and challenge traditional readings of B C history In this wide ranging collection R W Sandwell draws together a distinguished group of contributors who bring expertise methodologies and theoretical perspectives taken from social and political history environmental studies cultural geography and anthropology They discuss such diverse topics as Aboriginal White settler relations on Vancouver Island pimping and violence in northern BC and the triumph of the coddling moth over Okanagan orchardists to show that a narrow emphasis on resource extraction capitalist labour relations and urban society is simply not broad enough to adequately describe those who populated the province s history By challenging the dominant urban based and overwhelmingly capitalist interpretation of the province s history the provocative essays in Beyond the City Limits expand our understanding of what rural was and what it meant in the history of British Columbia

If More Walls Could Talk Valerie Green, 2004 Valerie Green and Lynn Gordon Findlay have put their ears to the walls of Vancouver Island s historic homes and transcribed the whispered secrets of bygone days when folk of every description left their echoes in the buildings where they lived worked played and died If the walls of a venerable mansion could speak what stories would it tell How about that rustic shack farther down the road In her first book If These Walls Could Talk Valerie Green explored 50 heritage homes in the Greater Victoria area In this second volume she ranges further afield covering Greater Victoria and Southern Vancouver Island Duncan and the Cowichan Valley Nanaimo Port Alberni Parksville Qualicum Beach Courtney and District and Campbell River and the North Island including homes in Telegraph Cove and Port McNeill Each home tells of a way of life long past of people who dwelt within its walls when and how it was built or how it is historically significant Once again Valerie s text is complemented by architectural artist Lynn Gordon Findlay s exquisite drawings
