Doering, 2017-04-22 This is the second book of Swoosh Family poems So I guess you might like to know where the Swoosh family came from The actual Swooshes are scribbles that live at the bottom of some pages in my written idea journals They started out as nameless undistinguished scribbles to end a page and fill up an extra line or so at the bottom Somewhere about three years in they began to take a particular shape that reminded me of faces so I began adding eyes and mouth indications That gave them a personality in my jaded eyes They were looking at me as I turned the page and they sort of reminded me of people I knew or knew about I wrote a poem then three then three hundred or so The family members and extended family members are not my own family necessarily but are each based on people I have met in some cases heard about it s a writer thing I guess Check these out you may know some of them yourself Finding Our Way Again Brian D.
