Absent Minds Stefan Collini, 2006 An account of the question of intellectuals in 20th century Britain this book challenges the myth that there are no real intellectuals in Britain and offers an analysis of the intellectual as a concept as well as detailed discussions of influential figures such as T S Eliot George Orwell and Edward Said

Training minds for the war of ideas Clarisse Berthezène, 2024-06-04 This book examines attempts by the Conservative party in the interwar years to capture the brains of the new electorate and create a counter culture to what they saw as the intellectual hegemony of the Left It tells the fascinating story of the Bonar Law Memorial College Ashridge founded in 1929 as a College of citizenship to provide political education through both teaching and publications The College aimed at creating Conservative Fabians who were to publish and disseminate Conservative literature which meant not only explicitly political works but literary historical and cultural work that carried implicit Conservative messages This book modifies our understanding of the history of the Conservative party and popular Conservatism but also more generally of the history of intellectual debate in Britain It sheds new light on the history of the middlebrow and how that category became a weapon for the Conservatives

History of Intellectual Culture 3/2024 Charlotte A. Lerg, Johan Östling, Jana Weiß, Anne Kwaschik, Claudia Roesch, 2024-10-21 The third issue of the yearbook History of Intellectual Culture HIC devotes a thematic section to experimental spaces for knowledge production The articles in this section investigate the role of experimental environments as sites for knowledge production during the long nineteenth century thereby extending the scope beyond the confines of traditional academic institutions such as academies laboratories and universities By focusing on intentional communities colonial gardens agricultural colonies and artistic colonies as experimental spaces the authors investigate the intertwined social natural and aesthetic aspects of environments An overarching aim is to develop a distinct perspective rooted in the history of knowledge wherein experiments are conceptualized both as a category employed by the historical actors and as a methodological concept In addition the third issue comprises several individual papers covering a wide range of topics stretching from the U S patent system in the 1930s and anti intellectualism in interwar Britain to the cultural translation of knowledge in the wake of the Holocaust and the circulation of economic knowledge in postwar Sweden The issue also contains several theoretical historiographical and methodological interventions and reflections including a conversation on decolonizing knowledge in academia and beyond Russell ,2008 Journal Military Service Institution of the United
