Menke Menke Katz, 2005 Menke Katz 1906 1991 is the only Yiddish poet to become a major poet in English too In his lifetime he published nine books in each language This volume contains an English translation of Menke Katz's complete Yiddish works Illustrated 100 page introduction by Dovid Katz contains numerous rare photographs the collection also features three maps and a preface by publisher Harry Smith Poems were translated by Benjamin and Barbara Harshav

Jews and Germans in Eastern Europe Tobias Grill, 2018-09-24 For many centuries Jews and Germans were economically and culturally of significant importance in East Central and Eastern Europe Since both groups had a very similar background of origin Central Europe and spoke languages which are related to each other German Yiddish the question arises to what extent Jews and Germans in Eastern Europe share common historical developments and experiences This volume aims to explore not only entanglements and interdependences of Jews and Germans in Eastern Europe from the late middle ages to the 20th century but also comparative aspects of these two communities Moreover the perception of Jews as Germans in this region is also discussed in detail

The Literature of Extreme Poverty in the Great Depression Robert Dale Parker, 2015 The Literature of Extreme Poverty in the Great Depression uncovers a forgotten side of modernism the literature of unemployment and poverty in the 1930s particularly fiction and poetry about people starving on the street or struggling on welfare people who often don't know where they'll find their next meal or whether they'll find someplace to sleep They spend the night on park benches or in filthy flophouses or they trade sex for food and shelter or they starve Time itself changes For the starving poor standing for hours and hours in a breadline the speed of modern culture slows down Parker expands on previous studies of the 1930s by recovering the fiction and poetry of dozens of forgotten writers and reading them together with political cartoons and with underknown writing by such acclaimed or understudied writers as Langston Hughes Tom Kromer Dorothy West and Martha Gellhorn From an age so immersed in despair and suffering that many writers came to doubt the very idea of literary aesthetics this book rescues a vast archive of literary analogues to the famous documentary photographs that burned the Depression into American visual memory It shapes a collective portrait and interpretation of a nearly lost literary history that represents a nation its crisis and its literature of crisis from the bottom up rather than from the top down
