Composition In Context Essays In Honor Of Donald C Stewart:

Composition in Context W. Ross Winterowd, Vincent Gillespie, 1994 Stewart a man who addressed the central paradox of the field its homelessness as a discipline in an academic community that prides itself on specialization Writing Program Administration Susan H. McLeod, 2007-03-16 This reference guide provides a comprehensive review of the literature on all the issues responsibilities and opportunities that writing program administrators need to understand manage and enact including budgets personnel curriculum assessment teacher training and supervision and more Writing Program Administration also provides the first comprehensive history of writing program administration in U S higher education Writing Program Administration includes a helpful glossary of terms and an annotated bibliography for further reading

Reconceiving Writing, Rethinking Writing Instruction Joseph Petraglia, 2013-11-05 To a degree unknown in practically any other discipline the pedagogical space afforded composition is the institutional engine that makes possible all other theoretical and research efforts in the field of rhetoric and writing But composition has recently come under attack from many within the field as fundamentally misguided Some of these critics have been labelled New Abolitionists for their insistence that compulsory first year writing should be abandoned Not limiting itself to first year writing courses this book extends and modifies calls for abolition by taking a closer look at current theoretical and empirical understandings of what contributors call general writing skills instruction GWSI the curriculum which an overwhelming majority of writing instructors is paid to teach that practically every composition textbook is written to support and the instruction for which English departments are given resources to deliver The vulnerability of GWSI is hardly a secret among writing professionals and its intellectual fragility has been felt for years and manifested in several ways in persistently low status of composition as a study both within and outside of English departments in professional journal articles and conference presentations that are growing both in theoretical sophistication and irrelevance to the composition classroom and in the rhetoric and writing field s ever increasing attention to nontraditional sites of writing behavior But to date there has been relatively little concerted discussion within the writing field that focuses specifically on the fundamentally awkward relationship of writing theory and writing instruction This volume is the first to explicitly focus on the gap in the theory and practice that has emerged as a result of the field s growing professionalization The essays anthologized offer critiques of GWSI in light of the discipline s growing understanding of the contexts for writing and their rhetorical nature Writing from a wide range of cognitivist critical theoretical historical linguistic and philosophical perspectives contributors call into serious question basic tenets of contemporary writing instruction and provide a forum for articulating a sort of zeitgeist that seems to permeate many writing conferences but which has until recently not found a voice or a name Mainstreaming Basic Writers Gerri McNenny, Sallyanne H. Fitzgerald, 2001-06 Explores the many facets of the mainstreaming movement in college level basic writing that are currently being debated Examines the theoretical political pedagogical concerns that arise as pressures push colleges to eliminate basic writing programs The Liberation of Winifred Bryan Horner Elaine J. Lawless, 2018-03-05 This inspiring tale of grit and determination sprinkled with humor wit and a taste of irony is the story of Winifred Bryan Horner's journey from a life of domesticity on the family farm after World War II to becoming an Endowed Professor Her compelling story is one of a woman's fight for equal rights and her ultimate success at a time when women were openly deemed less than men in the professional world Winifred a professional writer and consummate storyteller known to friends and family as Win always assumed she would write her own memoir But after retiring from teaching she found that she could never find the time or inspiration to sit down and record the pivotal stories of her remarkable 92 years of life Colleague and mentee Elaine J Lawless devised a plan to interview Win about her life and allow her to tell stories with the intention that Win would edit the transcriptions into her memoir Over four months Elaine visited Win on Wednesdays to interview her about her life Sadly just one week after the conclusion of the final interview Win unexpectedly passed away before Elaine could give her the final transcripts With the support of Win's family Elaine set out to finish this book on Win's behalf Win's story is one that will inspire and resonate with women as they continue to work toward equality in the world James A. Berlin and Social-Epistemic Rhetorics Victor J. Vitanza, 2021-01-16 The field of rhetoric and composition has at last received a long lost message delivered in the form of Victor J Vitanza's seminar on James A Berlin In this book that is an untext on Berlin's work and its impact on the field Vitanza acquaints us with Berlin by virtue of many Berlins in multiplicity and via the figure of an excluded third that wants to deliver to us a new message that was undelivered from Berlin to us and from Vitanza to Berlin after Berlin's untimely death in 1994 A seminar on a seminar on the teaching of writing it is teaching all the way down They met at the historical NEH seminar at Carnegie Mellon in 1978 Their friendship and rhetorical dialogues spanned only sixteen years but Vitanza continues the conversation through the seminar through this book rife with reflections and yes homework for his readers and through our reception of it It is up to us now to carry it forward As Vitanza writes I would prefer not to not think that what remains unsaid stays undelivered CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1994 Gail E. Hawisher, Cynthia L. Selfe, 1996-09 This volume lists and annotates more than two thousand articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions appeared in 1994 It includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter The 1994 Bibliography looks dramatically different from the Bibliography Erika Lindemann founded more than ten years ago Many more titles now relate to fields not represented in early editions Although composition and rhetoric has always borrowed methods of investigation from other disciplines areas such as critical theory science studies feminist theory technology studies and postmodern theory were much less a part of the discipline a decade ago These fields are well represented this year This volume like the 1993 Bibliography also differs from early editions in that it contains a section on electronic discussion groups or listservs including information on how readers may join the various groups Yet the mission and goals of the Bibliography remain the same to ensure that it is sufficiently comprehensive that it can continue to function as a major bibliographical resource available to scholars and teachers in rhetoric composition communication and literary education As usual the CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws on a large group of experts in the field Annotations which accompany every entry in this volume describe a publication s contents and are intended to help users determine the entry s usefulness Annotations are brief and are meant to be descriptive not evaluative they explain what an entry is about but leave readers free to judge for themselves the work s merits The CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric remains a critical bibliographical resource one that reflects and respects the variety of scholarship in composition studies and that exerts a constructive productive influence on the composition and rhetoric community

The Allyn & Bacon Sourcebook for College Writing Teachers James C. McDonald,1996 Designed for college writing teachers who are faced with teaching composition for the first time or re examining their teaching goals and methods The Allyn Bacon Sourcebook for College Writing Teachers is a collection of writings on important theories and pedagogies in composition studies The selections discuss a range of theories and approaches to teaching writing and present readers with a number of options for instruction rather than a single way to teach Written by some of today s foremost scholars and teachers the articles range from discussing how to integrate critical thinking and reading into writing instruction to methods for responding to and evaluating student writing to dealing with grammar and editing For those who teach writing

Composition And/or Literature Linda S. Bergmann,Edith M. Baker,2006

Personally Speaking Candace Spigelman,2004-10-07 Responding to contemporary discussion about using personal accounts in academic writing Personally Speaking Experience as Evidence in Academic Discourse draws on classical and current rhetorical theory feminist theory and relevant examples from both published writers and first year writing students to illustrate the advantages of blending experiential and academic perspectives Candace Spigelman examines how merging personal and scholarly worldviews produces useful contradictions and contributes to a more a complex understanding in academic writing This rhetorical move allows for greater insights than the reading or writing of experiential or academic modes separately does Personally Speaking foregrounds the semi fictitious nature of personal stories and the rhetorical possibilities of evidence as Spigelman provides strategies for writing instructors who want to teach personal academic argument while supplying practical mechanisms for evaluating experiential claims The volume seeks to complicate and intensify disciplinary debates about how compositionists should write for publication and what kinds of writing should be taught to composition students Spigelman not only supplies evidence as to why the personal can count as evidence but also relates how to use it effectively by including student samples that reflect particular features of personal writing Finally she lays the groundwork to move narrative from its current site as confessional writing to the domain of academic discourse

The Ethics of Writing Instruction Michael Pemberton,2000 The chapters in this volume recognize that different contexts sites and institutional goals will raise different sets of questions and judgements about what constitutes ethical writing instruction ethical response to written texts and ethical evaluation of a writers process and products They do not aim to resolve all the ethical questions that might arise in and about composition classrooms but they present a panoply of views arguments and perspectives on what it means to talk about ethics in the writing classroom and thereby encourage writing teachers to consider the ethical dimensions of their own instructional practices

Transforming Ethos Rosanne Carlo,2020-09-01 In Transforming Ethos Rosanne Carlo synthesizes philosophy rhetorical theory and composition theory to clarify the role of ethos and its potential for identification and pedagogy for writing studies Carlo renews focus on the ethos appeal and highlights its connection to materiality and place as a powerful instrument for writing and its teaching one that insists on the relational and multimodal aspects of writing and makes prominent its inherent ethical considerations and possibilities Through case studies of professional and student writings as well as narrative reflections Transforming Ethos imagines the ethos appeal as not only connected to style and voice but also a process of habituation related to practices of everyday interaction in places and with things Carlo addresses how ethos aids in creating identification transcending divisions between the self and other She shows that when writers tell their experiences they create and reveal the ethos appeal and this type of narrative multimodal writing is central to scholarship in rhetoric and composition as well as the teaching of writing In addition Carlo considers how composition is becoming compromised by professionalization particularly through the idea of transfer which is overtaking the critical work of self development with others that a writing classroom should encourage in college students Transforming Ethos cements ethos as an essential term for the modern practice and teaching of rhetoric and places it at the heart of writing studies This book will be significant for students and scholars in rhetoric and composition as well as those interested in higher education more broadly

Acts of Enjoyment Thomas Joseph Rickert,2007 A critique of current pedagogies that introduces a psychoanalytical approach in teaching composition and rhetoric Thomas Rickert builds upon the advances of cultural studies and its focus on societal trends and broadens this view by placing attention on the conscious and subconscious thought of the individual Winner 2007 JAC Gary A Olson Award

Field Of Dreams Peggy O'Neill,Angela Crow,Larry W. Burton,2002-06 Further chapters respond to these with critique and reflection on labor issues promotion and tenure institutional politics and disciplinary questions A promising read for department and writing program administrators as well as for general compositionists A Field of Dreams looks closely at particular independent writing programs and situates them broadly in the current scene of composition scholarship administration English studies and the university Jacket

Academic Writing Consulting and WAC Jeffrey Jablonski,2006 This book provides theoretical models and practical methods for helping writing teachers and writing program administrators within postsecondary institutions conduct the interdisciplinary collaborative consulting activities that are common with formal and information writing across the curriculum WAC programs It specifically discusses how to conduct the day to day work of negotiating close working partnerships with faculty in other disciplines and is the first book length treatment to do so The book deepens current understandings of how writing specialist collaborate with non writing specialists in academic contexts and provides a map for structuring successful collaborations in the future

Inventing a Discipline Maureen Daly Goggin, 2000 Heeding the call of noted rhetoric scholar Richard E Young to engage in serious scholarly investigations of the assumptions that underlie established practices and habits about writing the contributors to this critical volume study a diverse array of disciplinary issues situate their work in a wide matrix of theoretical perspectives and engage in multiple modes of inquiry and in multiple discourses In section 1 the authors consider the history present state and potential future directions of the research scholarship and pedagogies of the field Section 2 presents the theoretical historical and empirical investigations of particular kinds of rhetorical theories and practices Section 3 offers discussions of specific writing programs and pedagogical approaches After an introduction by Maureen Daly Goggin essays in the book are
