Comprehension And The Competent Reader Inter Specialty Perspectives:

Comprehension and the Competent Reader Dennis F. Fisher, Charles W. Peters, 1981-01-01 Psychology Library Editions: Psychology of Reading Various Authors, 2021-03-01 The psychology of reading investigates the process by which readers extract visual information from written text and make sense of it Psychology Library Editions Psychology of Reading 11 Volumes brings together as one set or individual volumes a small series of previously out of print titles originally published between 1980 and 1995 The set includes topics such as dyslexia and the relationship between speech and reading

Interactive Approaches to Second Language Reading Patricia L. Carrell, Joanne Devine, David E. Eskey, 1988-04-29 Emphasis is on English as a second language Memory Improved Bonnie J.F. Meyer, Carole J. Young, Brendan J. Bartlett, 2014-02-24 This unique text presents a systematic study of a proven method for increasing the memory and reading comprehension of older adults by using a program based on discourse processing The program facilitates the encoding and retrieval of information through a reading strategy plan utilizing top level structures in the text The authors of this volume provide student and teacher training manuals for the program as well as a review of the literature data tables and graphs an extensive bibliography and five 1 1 2 hour sessions to improve memory and reading comprehension

Understanding Expository Text Bruce K. Britton, John B. Black, 2017-11-01 Originally published in 1985 the various chapters in this volume give examples of research on all three aspects of text understanding namely structure world knowledge and process More than this however the research described represents a shift in emphasis from studying stories which dominated the field in the late 1970s to studying expository text This focus on stories was probably due to the essential first step in any science of examining the simplest materials possible However the editors thought that it was time to shift the research focus from stories to expository text and this volume is their attempt to provide this transition

The Technology of Text David H. Jonassen, 1982 Abstract Techniques for designing and developing text materials are described and elaborated for text development technologists This book focuses on 2 broad categories of techniques for structuring textual materials termed implicit e g discourse analysis elaboration theory and explicit e g algorithms tables diagrams techniques Implicit techniques are concerned with the structure of the content and sequencing of the message explicit techniques display the structure of the message The 4 sections of the book address implicit communication techniques explicit textual design specific design problems and how individuals differentially interact with text materials ranging from printed matter to television projections wz Eye Movements in Reading Keith Rayner, 2012-12-02 Eye Movements in Reading Perceptual and Language Processes focuses on eye movement and cognitive processes as a way to study the reading process This book also discusses the different aspects of reading Organized into seven parts encompassing 26 chapters this book begins with a discussion on the perceptual and psychophysical factors essential to eye movement during reading This book then explains how some psychophysical factors such as type size and masking affect the reading performance Other chapters consider the role of transient and sustained cells as well as their possible effects on reading This text also examines the size of the perceptual span in reading and the integration of information across eye movement Finally this book explains the eye movement abnormalities general eye movement parameters and the cognitive processes within the reading disabled group This book is a valuable resource to optometrists scientists field researchers and readers who are interested in the reading process
