

THINGS YOU CAN DO TO PREVENT CHILD ABUSE

KNOW WHAT CHILD ABUSE IS.

Physical and sexual abuse clearly constitute maltreatment, but so does neglect, or the failure of parents or other caregivers to provide a child with needed food, clothing, and care. Children can also be emotionally abused when they are rejected, berated, or continuously isolated.

KNOW THE SIGNS.

Unexplained injuries aren't the only signs of abuse. Depression, fear of a certain adult, difficulty trusting others or making friends, sudden changes in eating or sleeping patterns, inappropriate sexual behavior, poor hygiene, secrecy, and hostility are often signs of family problems and may indicate a child is being neglected or physically, sexually, or emotionally abused.

REPORT ABUSE.

When children are taught they are special and have the right to be safe, they are less likely to think abuse is their fault, and more likely to report an offender.

EDUCATE YOURSELF AND OTHERS.

Simple support for children and parents can be the best way to prevent child abuse. After-school activities, parent education classes, mentoring programs, and respite care are some of the many ways to keep children safe from harm. Be a voice in support of these efforts in your community.

TEACH CHILDREN THEIR RIGHTS.

When children are taught they are special and have the right to be safe, they are less likely to think abuse is their fault, and more likely to report an offender.

EXAMINE YOUR BEHAVIOR.

Abuse is not just physical. Both words and actions can inflict deep, lasting wounds. Be a nurturing parent. Use your actions to show children and other adults that conflicts can be settled without hitting or yelling.

DISCIPLINE THOUGHTFULLY.

Never discipline your child when you are upset. Give yourself time to calm down. Remember that discipline is a way to teach your child. Use privileges to encourage good behavior and time-outs to help your child regain control.

SUPPORT PREVENTION PROGRAMS.

Too often, intervention occurs only after abuse is reported. Greater investments are needed in programs that have been proven to stop the abuse before it occurs - such as family counseling and home visits by nurses who provide assistance for newborns and their parents.

INVEST IN KIDS.

Encourage leaders in the community to be supportive of children and families. Ask employers to provide family-friendly work environments. Ask your local and national lawmakers to support legislation to better protect our children and to improve their lives.

VOLUNTEER YOUR TIME.

Get involved with other parents in your community. Help vulnerable children and their families. Start a playgroup. Contact the Tulare County Child Abuse Prevention Council at 559-735-0456 for more information on volunteer opportunities!
