

An aerial photograph of a city at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow over the scene. The city's grid of streets and buildings is visible, with some taller structures standing out. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

Acceptance is easier
when one is powerless.

Accepting Powerlessness:

A Place Called Self A Companion Workbook Stephanie Brown, 2011-04-19 A Place Called Self A Companion Workbook addresses one of the greatest gifts and biggest challenges for women in recovery Discovering their real true self Stephanie Brown explains how the process of becoming addicted requires women to shut down turn off and block out much of their true selves The process of recovery is a process of self discovery of finding and developing the real self the healthy self Stephanie Brown created A Place Called Self A Companion Workbook to be your personal recovery guide with instructive insights and revealing questions to help you think of yourself in new ways

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion, Gender and Sexuality Sonya Sharma, Dawn Llewellyn, Sian Hawthorne, 2024-06-13 Bringing together disciplines across the arts humanities and social sciences this Handbook presents novel and lively examinations of the dynamic ways religion gender and sexuality operate Applying feminist intersectional and reflexive approaches the volume aims to loosen imperialist and exclusionary figurations that have underwritten and tethered religion gender and sexuality together While holding onto the field of inquiry the Handbook offers contributions that interrogate and untie it from the terms and conditions that have formed it The volume is organized into thematic sections Forces and Futures Activisms and Labors Agencies and Practices Relationships and Institutions Texts and Objects Chapters range across religious geographical historical political and social contexts and feature an array of case studies experiences and topics that exemplify the reflexive intention of the volume including explorations of race whiteness colonialism and the institutional intolerance of minority groups Contributors also advance new areas of research in religion including artificial intelligence farming migrant mothering child sexual abuse mediatization national security legal frameworks addiction and recovery decolonial hermeneutics creative arts sport sexual practices and academic friendship This is an essential contribution to the fields of religious studies and gender and sexuality studies

Injustice and the Care of Souls, Second Edition Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, Karen B. Montagno, 2023-09-12 The practice of pastoral care cannot escape the realities of injustices and oppression that often operate in the context where caregiving happens In response Sheryl A Kujawa Holbrook and Karen B Montagno present a compilation of essays that reach beyond individualistic white Western middle class models of caregiving that can mimic systems of injustice Instead the resulting volume offers constructive approaches to caregiving that more effectively meet the needs of those who routinely experience marginalization and oppression Kujawa Holbrook and Montagno argue that the fundamental work of religious traditions including caregiving is about human freedom and wholeness As such Injustice and the Care of Souls helps chaplains pastoral counselors social service workers and other caregivers to better situate their work within the contexts of those seeking care The book also helps caregivers to reflect on ways their social locations affect their work Since its first publication nearly fifteen years ago this book uniquely offered content that situated contexts such as substructures in urban neighborhoods religious liturgical practices and the impact of public policies as the focus for examining critical dynamics surrounding those seeking care the caregiver and the hope for oppression sensitive forms of pastoral care This second edition revises and reorganizes previous essays while providing additional ones New chapters include ones that highlight the dead time of prison life the impact of moral decision making on veterans and the life or death challenges that immigrants and refugees often face Kujawa Holbrook and Montagno divide this edition s twenty seven essays into five parts with the first part devoted to the pastoral caregiver s positionality The remaining sections address pastoral caregiving as embodied practices cultural fluency and intersectional awareness pastoral practice across the life span and pastoral practice and public witness This volume s contributors offer spiritual caregivers a compilation of approaches to the care of souls that bring healing voice and wholeness to the marginalized and oppressed

Successful Recovery and Relapse Prevention Bill McCausland Ph.D.,2016-11-11 The workbook addresses several concepts and starts with the prevention of relapse The major part of the workbook is how to develop support systems for maintaining recovery that contribute to successful recovery The text shows many elements that contribute to addiction It goes into detail about the genetic aspects of addiction There is also a segment of how executive functioning of the brain can get impaired with addiction that compromises judgment impulse control and the ability to organize But these impairments can be temporary with practicing having good judgment and impulse control since new neuropathways can develop with exercising these functions The stages of recovery and change are reviewed as well as the twelve steps of Alcoholics Anonymous and Narcotics Anonymous One chapter is dedicated to powerlessness and unmanageability At the end of each chapter there are references for the reader to consult that have been used for the content of the workbook chapters
