The Bible Revisited George Savitt,1990      Biblical Metaphor Reconsidered Job Y. Jindo,2018-07-17 How do we understand the characteristically extensive presence of imagery in biblical prophecy Poetic metaphor in prophetic writings has commonly been understood solely as an artistic flourish intended to create certain rhetorical effects It thus appears expendable and unrelated to the core content of the composition however engaging it may be aesthetically or otherwise Job Jindo invites us to reconsider this convention Applying recent studies in cognitive science he explores how we can view metaphor as the very essence of poetic prophecy namely metaphor as an indispensable mode to communicate prophetic insight Through a cognitive reading of Jeremiah 1 24 Jindo amply demonstrates the advantage and heuristic ramifications of this approach in biblical studies      Millennialism, Millerites, and Prophecy in Bahá'í Discourse William P. Collins,2025-09-22 This book explores the role of millennialism the Millerites and prophecy in the historical development of the Bah faith especially in North America The author demonstrates the importance of the Bah religion to millennialism studies and its connection to certain Protestant American and Shia Islamic modes of thought Bah s see two millennial visions on far separated continents within different religious milieux and from contrasting social climates as spiritually and prophetically linked the Millerites who expected the return of Christ in 1844 CE and Shia Muslims who expected the Mahd Q im Twelfth Imam in 1260 AH 1844 CE The chapters in this volume reflect on theories about millennialist movements the continuum from catastrophic to progressive millennialism Bah interpretations of biblical prophecy and Bah efforts to build the Kingdom of God on earth under a systematic divine plan The book highlights the maturation of the Bah community toward a focus on process and a capacity to deal with both catastrophe and progress It provides scholars of religion with a detailed study of the trajectory in Bah millennial ideas      The Biblical World Katharine J.
