Biblical Meditations for Ordinary Time Carroll Stuhlmueller, 1984 V 2 Weeks 10 22 New Catholic World, 1988

Guiding Your Parish Through the Christian Initiation Process William R. Bruns, 1993 What do you need to know to direct your parish's RCIA William Bruns an experienced parish RCIA director offers a handy guide a basic starter kit that answers questions you might have about the process What is the RCIA How did it begin What are the various liturgical rites and how are they carried out What are some common misunderstandings and mistakes How do I get started How about a sample calendar

Bible and Poverty in Kenya Maurice Matendeche Sakwa, 2008-02-28 Many strategies have been formulated to reduce poverty the most recent being the need to include the poor as co agents in the development process Culture understood as commonly shared values then becomes an important element in poverty alleviation Likewise religion becomes an important element of culture when the values of that religion are considered as widespread in the society Additionally political and economic factors are equally important for poverty alleviation This work is centered on a conceptual model postulating that cultural attitudes influence attitudes towards ends of poverty alleviation directly and indirectly through political and economic attitudes The study maps out the paths of influence of cultural religious values political and economic attitudes on those towards ends of poverty alleviation

Angels Celebrate Marianne Dorman, 2011-01-15 This is the last volume in the set for Ordinary Time in the Christian Year and it completes a series of meditations for the whole year For the weekday readings at Mass there is a two year cycle Over the two years there is a different first reading from the Scriptures whilst both years share the same Gospel readings On Sundays there is a three year cycle with the Gospel readings taken from Matthew Mark and Luke respectively One of the ways we grow in our faith is by knowing the Scriptures well Even if we do not attend Mass daily we can always meditate on the set readings When we do this it will lead us into parts of our Bible that hitherto we may not have ventured If digested properly they will undoubtedly prompt questions and raise topics for prayer and further research This book is designed to help you to understand your Bible better and how it unveils the work of salvation by our loving God beginning with the call of Abraham and His relationship with His chosen people When the time was right God sent His Son into the world to continue God's redeeming love for all creation So the Old Testament prepared the way for the coming of the Christ that is recorded in the New Testament It is this part of the Bible that is particularly interesting for Christians today as it gives insight as to how those first Christians came to believe in Jesus as their Saviour and were baptised into His death It also reveals many of the problems that beset the first Christians over morality worship and obligations These are still relevant today Thus we need to heed the advice of Paul and other Christian writers of the first century in how we live out the teachings of Christ

Biblical Meditations for Lent Carroll Stuhlmueller, 1978 Readings for each weekday as well as the Sundays of each of the three cycles are summarized and reflections for each day are given based on scriptural scholarship

Views from the Pew, Pulpit and Women Religious Koncel, 2010-07-27 In his very personal account Ed Koncel a well read and thoughtful Catholic shares his recollections of the church past his frustrations with the church present and his hopes for Catholicism's more vibrant future Robert McClory author of As It Was in the Beginning Ed Koncel writes from the perspective of a faithful son of the Church faithful over the course of his long life He writes with both passion and compassion in regard to the people and the proceedings of the Second Vatican Council and the developments since the Council Obviously well read and actively involved in various groups working to make real the words and spirit of the documents of the Vatican II he speaks with the authority of knowledge and personal experience and integrity I believe he also speaks as one whose love of the Church motivates him to keep working for its coming to accept the full participation of all in the liturgical and governmental life of its people Mr Koncel strikes me as a man of hope an extraordinary virtue in our time Denise Wilkinson SP General Superior of the Sisters of Providence
