Feast of Stephen Stephen Leacock, 1990 Do you know the characteristic wine of Madeira I do not know whether Leacock ever drank Madeira himself he was very much a Scotch whisky man but I enjoy Madeira greatly and I never drink it without thinking of Leacock who was sometimes dry sometimes sweet but who always leaves upon the tongue a hint of brimstone In his witty and illuminating introduction which takes up the first third of the book Robertson Davies invites us to join him in a Feast of Stephen Davies selection of fifteen pieces from Leacock's less familiar works presents the humorist as a true broad and sympathetic interpreter of Canadian life as a man who may have lacked self knowledge and sensitive insight into the feelings of others but whose best work was the outpouring of genius All shades of Leacock's writing are represented here from the brilliant nonsense which made some critics liken him to Lewis Carroll to his occasional attacks of aggressive Lowbrowism Together in all their diversity Davies selections pay tribute to the gifts of exuberance originality and slightly malicious truth with which Leacock so entertainingly extends our vision
