The Essentials of Special Education Research Andrew M. Markelz, Benjamin S. Riden, 2024-08-21 Researchers in special education have been developing a knowledge base of evidence based practices that improve the outcomes of students with disabilities Unfortunately filtering that knowledge into classrooms implemented by special education teachers has been a challenge In The Essentials of Special Education Research Andrew M Markelz and Benjamin S Riden directly address the persistent research to practice gap by systematically presenting the essential components of research that every special education teacher must know The first section investigates the foundations of research and why special education teachers should regularly read research articles It also examines the basic structure of research articles to demystify jargon and provide teachers confidence when reading scientific literature The second section explores various research methodologies that consumers of research must know Methodologies such as literature reviews single case design quantitative qualitative and others are unpacked so that special education teachers know the critical components of these methodologies along with their limitations to become critical consumers of research The third section focuses on putting this knowledge into practice Using practical scenarios the authors demonstrate how a special education teacher can combat common classroom problems by locating and reading relevant research to gain information and implement best practices based on scientific evidence This step by step guide combines the knowledge and skills outlined in this book to truly become a scientific practitioner Outreach Nancy Courtney, 2009 Traditionally academic library outreach has meant reaching out to the campus community providing services to faculty and students Many universities and colleges however now have a new or renewed emphasis on outreach beyond the campus seeking to ensure their institutions relevance to the community at large How can and do academic libraries participate in this type of outreach What types of collaborations or partnerships are academic libraries forming with schools public libraries or community groups How do academic librarians partner with faculty or campus departments on their community projects What role does service learning play Nancy Courtney has assembled a sampling of approaches from the innovative to the tried and true each written in the voice of its strongest champion Trade, 1906
