Architects Today The 100 Greatest Living Architects:

Architects Today Kester Rattenbury, Robert Bevan, Kieran Long, 2006-08-10 This volume offers both an introduction to and an insight into key contemporary architects as well as giving a snapshot of the varied nature of architecture today For each architect there are details of their life and work and illustrations of their most representative and iconic buildings

Architect of Evangelicalism (Best of Christianity Today) Carl F. H. Henry, 2019-11-27 In recent years the label evangelical has been distorted and its usefulness questioned No one is better equipped to provide a clear understanding of evangelicalism than the late Carl F H Henry the founding editor of Christianity Today and the most influential theologian of American evangelicalism in the twentieth century While Billy Graham was preaching the gospel to stadiums full of people Henry was working tirelessly to help Christians adopt a worldview that encompasses all of life Architect of Evangelicalism helps us gain a better sense of the roots of American evangelicalism by giving us the best of Henry s Christianity Today essays on subjects such as what defines evangelicalism what separates it from theological liberalism what evangelical Christian education should look like and how evangelicals should engage with society

The Country Houses of John F. Staub Stephen Fox, 2007 This ambitious study of Staub s work by architectural historian Stephen Fox goes beyond a description of Staub s houses Fox analyzes the roles of space structure and decoration in creating defining and maintaining social class structures and expectations and shows how Staub was able to incorporate these elements and understandings into the elegant buildings he designed for his clients In the process he contributes greatly to a fuller understanding of Houston s emergence as a premier American city
