Architecture Construction 2001 2002:

Construction Materials Manual Manfred Hegger, Volker Auch-Schwelk, Matthias Fuchs, Thorsten Rosenkranz, 2013-02-12 Until now the few existing systematic texts on construction materials have primarily been directed at building engineers An overview for architects which also considers the importance of construction materials in the sensory perception of architecture including tactile qualities smell color and surface structure has not been available With the publication of the Construction Materials Manual all that has changed As a basic work aimed equally at the questions and perspectives of architects and building engineers it will bring together all of the above mentioned viewpoints It addresses fundamental questions of sustainability including life span environmental impact and material cycles while also presenting material innovations All of the principal conventional and innovative construction materials are comprehensively documented with attention to their production manufacture fabrication treatment surfaces connections and characteristics International examples help to illustrate their use in architecture where a building s appearance is often defined by a single material Thus the Construction Materials Manual will support the daily work of architects and engineers in the choice of construction materials in a comprehensive and at the same time vivid and stimulating manner

Chinese Experimental Architecture Or French Poststructuralist Theory Ruo Jia, 2025-11-18 Chinese Experimental Architecture Or French Poststructuralist Theory Different Patches of the Concrete starts with a paradox how the Chinese Cultural Revolution through its adaptation by French Theory and French Theory s subsequent adaptation by Chinese Experimental Architecture shaped the Chinese reformative effort to redefine itself amidst its struggle against colonial dynamics and against the Cultural Revolution Through French Poststructuralist Theory the project creates a critical narrative to access the Chinese Experimental Architecture movement of the late 1990s and early 2000s and its legacy in contemporary Chinese architecture At the same time it provides in retrospect an opportunity to approach French Theory in its rich global materiality as a production of Chinese Experimental Architecture This study thus overcomes simplistic dichotomies of dominant and subjugated reductive labels of orientalism self orientalism and nationalism as well as architectural stylistic or operative canons It opens such borders and enclosed entities in a positive way exploring collaborative inquiries where new possibilities of different materialist architectural design and socio eco political epistemological structure emerge in a field of events encounters and connections around the probl matique and signifier of the concrete
