Architecture In Black:

Architecture in Black Darell Wayne Fields, 2015-03-12 Based on analysis of historical philosophical and semiotic texts Architecture in Black presents a systematic examination of the theoretical relationship between architecture and blackness Now updated this original study draws on a wider range of case studies highlighting the racial techniques that can legitimize modern historicity philosophy and architectural theory Arguing that architecture as an aesthetic practice and blackness as a linguistic practice operate within the same semiotic paradigm Darell Fields employs a technique whereby works are related through the repetition and revision of their semiotic structures Fields reconstructs the genealogy of a black racial subject represented by the simultaneous reading of a range of canonical texts from Hegel to Saussure to Henry Louis Gates Jr Combining an historical survey of racial discourse with new readings resulting from advanced semiotic techniques doubling as spatial arrangements Architecture in Black is an important contribution to studies of the racial in Western thought and its impact on architecture space and time

Architecture in Black Darell Wayne Fields, 2000-03-04 Architecture in Black argues that architecture as an aesthetic practice and blackness as a linguistic practice operate within the same semiotic paradigm The book presents the first systematic analysis of the theoretical relationship between architecture and blackness Employing a technique whereby texts are related through the repetition and revision of their semiotic structures Architecture in Black reconstructs the genealogy of a black racial subject represented by the simultaneous reading of a range of canonical apparatus invented by this reading is then used to critique a discrete set of architectural texts demonstrating the presence of the black vernacular in contemporary architectural theory

The Black Skyscraper Adrienne Brown, 2017-11-15 How did writers and artists view the intersection of architecture and race in the modernist era Winner of the MSA First Book Prize of the Modernist Studies Association With the development of the first skyscrapers in the 1880s urban built environments could expand vertically as well as horizontally Tall buildings emerged in growing cities to house and manage the large and racially diverse populations of migrants and immigrants flocking to their centers following Reconstruction Beginning with Chicago's early 10 story towers and concluding with the 1931 erection of the 102 story Empire State Building Adrienne Brown's The Black Skyscraper provides a detailed account of how scale and proximity shape our understanding of race Over the next half century as city skylines grew American writers imagined the new urban backdrop as an obstacle to racial differentiation Examining works produced by writers painters architects and laborers who grappled with the early skyscraper's outsized and disorienting dimensions Brown explores this architecture's effects on how race was seen read and sensed at the turn of the twentieth century In lesser known works of apocalyptic science fiction light romance and Jazz Age melodrama as well as in more canonical works by W E B Du Bois F Scott Fitzgerald Aaron Douglas and Nella Larsen the skyscraper mediates the process of seeing and being seen as a racialized subject From its distancing apex reducing bodies to specks to the shadowy mega blocks it formed at street level the skyscraper called attention Brown argues to the malleable nature of perception A highly interdisciplinary work The Black Skyscraper reclaims the influence of race on modern architectural design as well as the less well understood effects these designs had on the experience and perception of race

Mason, 2022 Building Black Towards Antiracist Architecture brings together the forefronts of Black Studies and architectural theory Only recently architecture and urban planning have started to confront their constitution of race as a social referent and their part in the establishment of racist logics This confrontation usually results in projects that respond to their surroundings that merge into a changing and multicultural city Building Black however proposes the construction of a Black radical position building islands of resistance against the expanding sea of imperial architecture In Building Black Mason reads the racial meaning of current construction projects in England through the histories of race and architecture Closely reading Immanuel Kant's formulation of the Subject as the creator of space and the development of whiteness in Modernist architecture Mason finds that Blackness is an ongoing antecedent island that can
