Onlogic Kas Oosterhuis, Ilona Lénárd, 2008 Offers a survey of the unique and powerful work developed by ONL

Serials in the British Library, 2006 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003 International Congress Calendar, 2002 Architecture in Germany, 2006 Cognitive Architecture Deborah Hauptmann, Warren Neidich, 2010

Noo politics is most broadly understood as a power exerted over the life of the mind reconfiguring perception memory and attention This volume unites specialists in political and aesthetic philosophy neuroscience sociology and architecture and presents their ideas for re thinking the city in terms of neurobiology and Noo politics The book examines the relationship between information and communication calling for a new logic of representation and shows how architecture can merge with urban systems and processes to create new forms of network that empower the imagination and change our cultural landscape Books in Print Supplement, 2002 Annual Report on English and American Studies, 2002 Index of Conference Proceedings British Library. Document Supply Centre, 2003

Reports Required by Congress, 2003 DAM Annual, 2005 Architectural Publications Index, 2003 Old & New Frank Peter Jäger, 2012-11-05

Most of the buildings that will be needed in Europe in the coming decades have long since been built The building tasks of the future lie in the skillful reuse and transformation of existing building stock whether it be the redevelopment of historic city centers the building of extensions onto residential structures the expansion of public buildings or the redevelopment of entire factory areas Building in the existing fabric calls for highly specific approaches in planning construction and implementation It spans a broad range of building tasks from working within the guidelines of historic preservation and renovating carefully and cautiously all the way to the complete transformation of what exists In addition to aesthetic transformation technical aspects such as improving energy efficiency and working with contaminated building materials also play an important role This book provides a comprehensive overview of architectonic strategies of continuing to build It presents intelligent ideas and approaches for working with existing building stock and divides them into three categories according to the method selected addition transformation and reuse Presented in this volume are everyday projects such as the revitalizing of structures from the 1950s to the 1970s for example the renovation of Siedlung Heuried in Zurich by Adrian Streich Architekten but also more specialized examples such as the open air library made of elements recycled from the facade of a department store in Magdeburg Salbke by Karo Architekten Interviews with experts provide helpful background information on selected topics Evolution of the Insects David Grimaldi, Michael S. Engel, 2005-05-16

Insects are the most diverse group of organisms in the 3 billion year history of life on Earth and the most ecologically dominant animals on land This book chronicles for the first time the complete evolutionary history of insects their living diversity relationships and 400 million years of fossils Whereas other volumes have focused on either living species or fossils this is the first comprehensive synthesis of all aspects of insect evolution The book is illustrated with 955

photo and electronmicrographs drawings diagrams and field photos many in full colour and virtually all of them original The book will appeal to anyone engaged with insect diversity professional entomologists and students insect and fossil collectors and naturalists
