Architectures Modernism And After:

Architectures Andrew Ballantyne, 2008-04-15 Architectures Modernism and After surveys the history of the building from the advent of industrialization to the cultural imperatives of the present moment Brings together international art and architectural historians to consider a range of topics that have influenced the shape profile and aesthetics of the built environment Presents crucial moments in the history of the field when the architecture of the past is made to respond to new and changing cultural circumstances Provides a view of architectural history as a part of a continuing dialogue between aesthetic criteria and social and cultural imperatives Part of the New Interventions in Art History Series which is published in conjunction with the Association of Art Historians American Architecture Architecture Urbanism, 1981 American Architecture Robert A. M. Stern, 1981 American Architecture After Modernism /guest Edited by Robert A.M. Stern. --, 1981 Beyond the Supersquare Antonio Bessa, 2014 Reconstructing Modernism Ashley Maher, 2020-03-12 Reconstructing Modernism establishes for the first time the centrality of modernist buildings and architectural periodicals to British mid century literature Drawing upon a wealth of previously unexplored architectural criticism by British authors this book reveals how arguments about architecture led to innovations in literature as well as to redesigns in the concept of modernism itself While the city has long been a focus of literary modernist studies architectural modernism has never had its due Scholars usually characterize architectural modernism as a parallel modernism or even an incompatible modernism to literature Giving special attention to dystopian classics Brave New World and Nineteen Eighty Four this study argues that sustained attention to modern architecture shaped mid century authors political and aesthetic commitments After many writers deemed modernist architects to be agents for communism and other collectivist movements they squared themselves and literary modernist detachment and aesthetic autonomy against the seemingly tyrannical utopianism of modern architecture literary aesthetic qualities were reclaimed as political qualities In this way Reconstructing Modernism redraws the boundaries of literary modernist studies rather than simply adding to its canon it argues that the responsibility for defining literary modernism for the mid century public was shared by an incredible variety of authors Edwardians modernists satirists and even anti modernists A History of Western Architecture David Watkin, 2005 The history of Western architecture from the earliest times in Mesopotamia and Egypt to the dramatic impact of CAD on architectural practice at the beginning of the 21st century Afropolis Kerstin Pinther, Larissa Förster, Christian Hanussek, 2012 Metropolises often evoke images of flashy high rise buildings permanent background noise backed up cars and people moving quickly in all directions in their masses New York Tokyo London Sao Paulo But what about Cairo Robert A.M. Stern, 1965-1980 Robert A. M. Stern, 1981 The Story of Post-Modernism Charles Jencks, 2012-05-25 In The Story of Post Modernism Charles Jencks the authority on Post Modern architecture and culture provides the defining account of Post Modern architecture from its earliest roots in the early 60s to the present day By breaking the narrative into seven distinct chapters which are both chronological and overlapping Jencks charts the ebb and flow of the movement the peaks and troughs of different ideas and themes The book is highly visual As well as providing a chronological account of the movement each chapter also has a special feature on the major works of a given period The first up to date narrative of Post Modern Architecture other major books on the subject were written 20 years ago An accessible narrative that will appeal to students who are new to the subject as well as those who can remember its heyday in the 70s and 80s

Resisting Postmodern Architecture

Stylianos Giamarellos,2022-01-10 Since its first appearance in 1981 critical regionalism has enjoyed a celebrated worldwide reception The 1990s increased its pertinence as an architectural theory that defends the cultural identity of a place resisting the homogenising onslaught of globalisation Today its main principles such as acknowledging the climate history materials culture and topography of a specific place are integrated in architects education across the globe But at the same time the richer cross cultural history of critical regionalism has been reduced to schematic juxtapositions of the global with the local Retrieving both the globalising branches and the overlooked cross cultural roots of critical regionalism Resisting Postmodern Architecture resituates critical regionalism within the wider framework of debates around postmodern architecture the diverse contexts from which it emerged and the cultural media complex that conditioned its reception In so doing it explores the intersection of three areas of growing historical and theoretical interest postmodernism critical regionalism and globalisation Based on more than 50 interviews and previously unpublished archival material from six countries the book transgresses existing barriers to integrate sources in other languages into anglophone architectural scholarship In so doing it shows how the periphery was not just a passive recipient but also an active generator of architectural theory and practice Stylianos Giamarellos challenges long held central notions of supposedly international discourses of the recent past and outlines critical regionalism as an unfinished project apposite for the 21st century on the fronts of architectural theory history and historiography

Architecture After Modernism Diane Yvonne Ghirardo, 1996 Since the Modern Movement began to be challenged in the late 1960s architecture has followed a number of widely divergent paths In this thoughtful and eloquent book Diane Ghirardo examines the architectural world of the last quarter century and its theories in the crucial context of social and political issues Within a survey of a broad range of buildings she focuses on specific megaprojects as paradigms for discussion In the realm of public space she argues the key questions are raised by the Disney empire and its amusement parks in domestic space by the IBA in Berlin with projects ranging from new structures to rehabilitation and residents self build When it comes to reconfiguring the urban sphere the megaproject is London's Docklands the most ambitious and politically sensitive development in postwar Britain Her text ranges world wide and she considers the work of lesser known designers and women architects as well as famous international stars
