Architectures Publiques 1990:

Modern Architecture in Historic Cities Sebastian Loew, 1998 Topical and controversial this book illustrates why France has been so successful in combining conservation and modernity and points to important lessons that other countries can draw from the French experience

The Promotion of Architecture Sebastian Loew, 1997 In this concise and informative study Loew provides an historical background to the transformation of new architecture in France and public attitudes towards it Recent French legislation is clearly explained as are the nature and functions of the various architectural institutions This book will be of interest not only to the architectural profession but also to educational institutions government bodies and local authorities voluntary organizations and amenity societies It is both topical and timely

Christian Hauvette ,2000-05-01 Born in 1944 Christian Hauvette studied under the philosopher Roland Barthes before going on to train as an architect Since 1980 he has headed his own office in Paris Today Hauvette is one of France s leading architects His architecture is characterised by a clear constructive purpose which is at the same time highly expressive Jean Prouv s theories are much in evidence in his work This monograph provides an in depth overview on the buildings and projects of the 90s including the School of Waters and Forests in Clermont Ferrand and his sensational headquarters of the Caisse Fran aise de D veloppement in Paris analysing the essential characteristics of Hauvette s creativity
